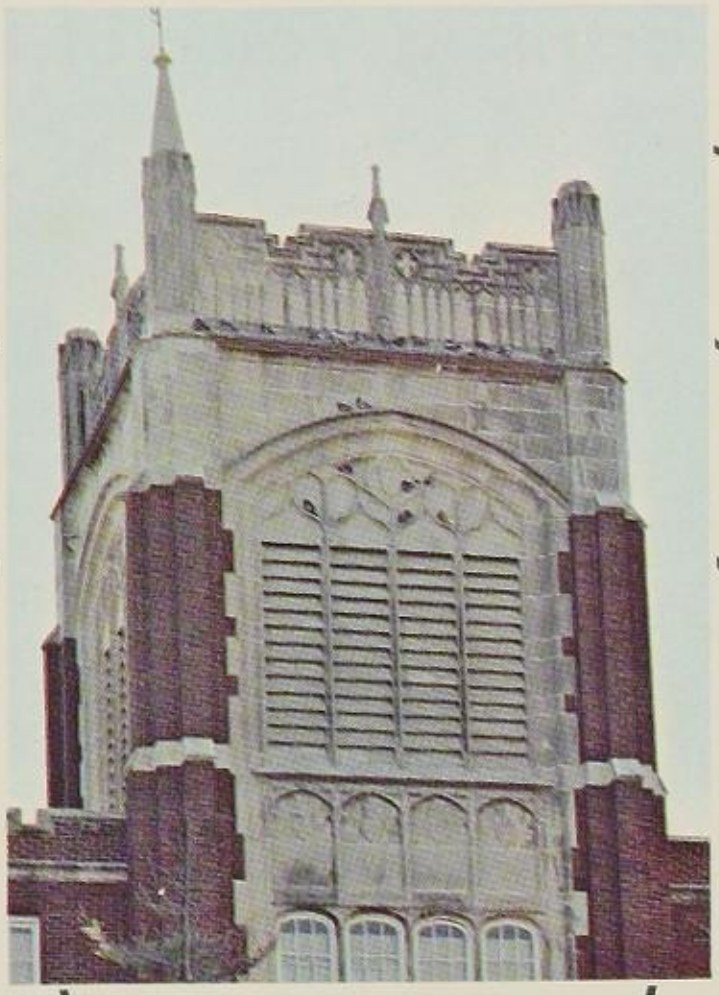
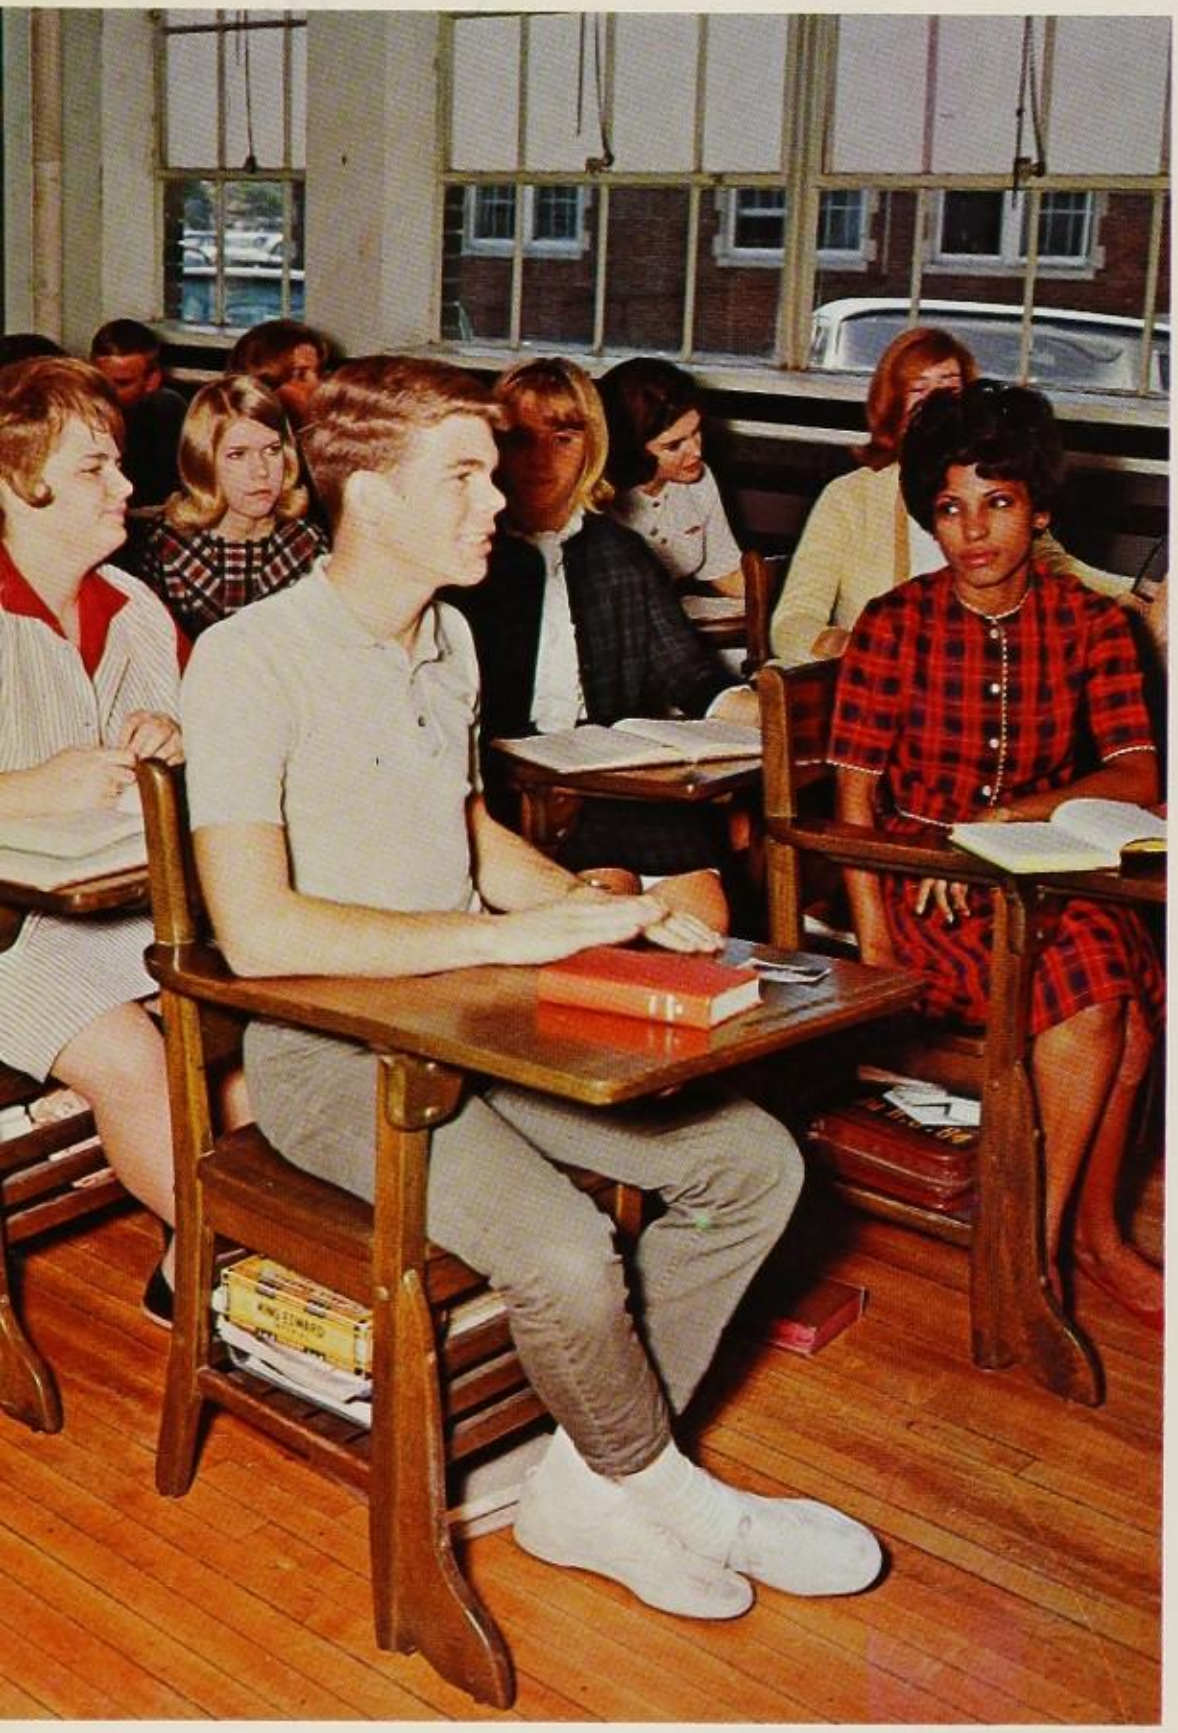
ECHOES

WICHITA HIGH SCHOOL EAST

WICHITA, KANSAS



The Echoing Voice of East



A student learns many things during his years as an Ace. He learns the basic knowledge taught to him in class by books and lectures. But more important, he learns a way to live, a way of understanding people, and of understanding himself. He joins the common cause of promoting Wichita East, whether he joins as a leader or as a follower. He is moved by the people around him, by students his age, by speakers in assemblies, by administrators, counselors, and teachers. His ideas are continuously changing, his goals changing with them.

As a teacher speaks he echos the voices of great men before him, and so does the student echo the voice of the teacher when he uses that knowledge later in life. A game won or lost, a friendship gained or lost, an ambition attained or lost, all experiences of today will echo as memories, as lessons, in the future.

Each day, each moment, East is preparing its students for the world. As we leave these halls and go our chosen directions, the voice of East will leave with us, serving as a background for our lives. Nothing lost, nothing forgotten, this voice will live in our hearts and in the world forever.

Sid F. Moore—Principal

Sid F. Moore—Dedicated

Advisor, Leader, and Friend

Enforcing the policies of the Wichita Board of Education, solving daily problems, attending school activities, and finding time to take a personal interest in each student takes a nine hour day for Sid F. Moore, East's principal. During the past eleven years, Mr. Moore's smile, pat on the shoulder, and wave of the hand have greeted thousands of Aces.

Mr. Moore spends much of his time in the halls and cafeteria giving worthy advice to students with problems or passing the day with his many friends.

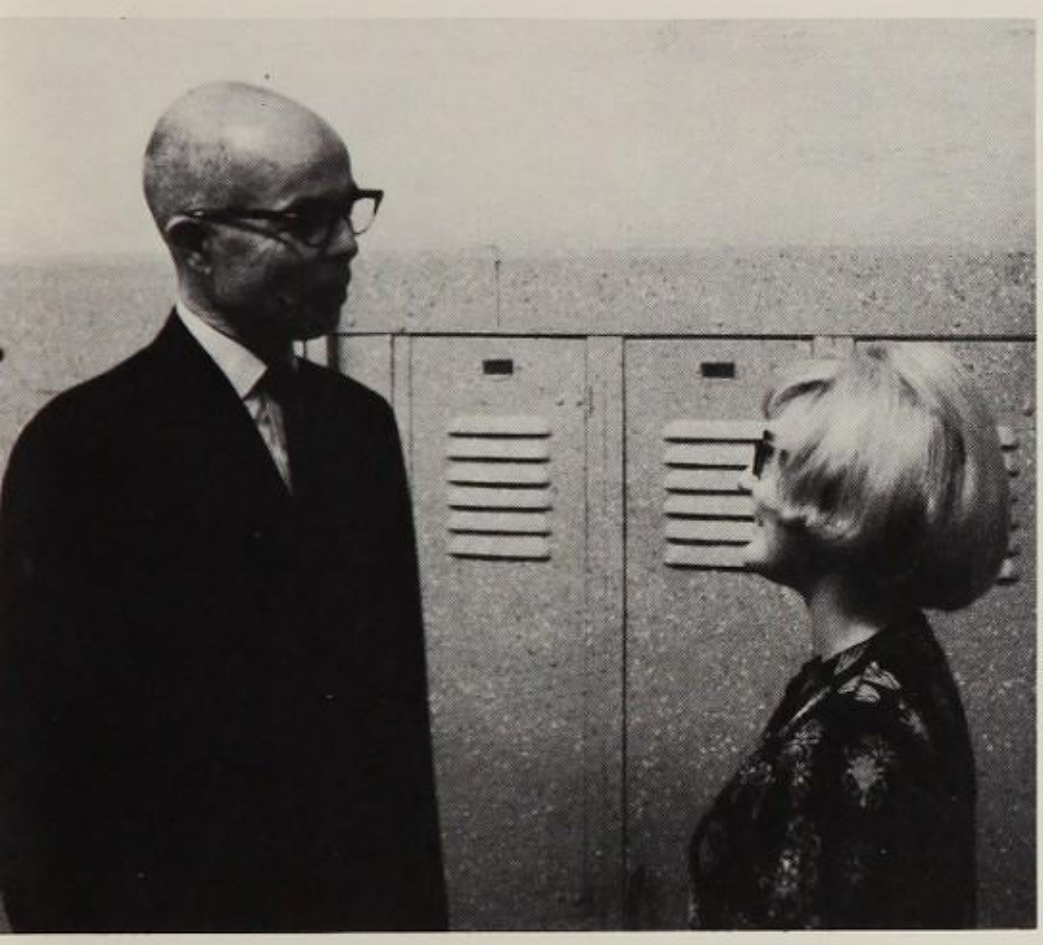
He says, "I really have a personal interest in the kids individually. Their welfare is most important."

He is always in the bleachers at athletic events and seldom misses a dramatics presentation, music program, or debate tournament.

Not only is he involved in every school activity, but Mr. Moore belongs to the Wichita Gun Club, the College Hill Methodist Church, the Downtown Lion's Club of which he is past president, and various educational organizations. His leisure time is spent refinishing antique furniture and hunting, his two favorite hobbies.

Although Mr. Moore has enjoyed participating in these activities, his greatest pleasure is to be principal of East.

DISCUSSING EAST'S ACTIVITIES with Sid F. Moore are Alvin Morris, assistant superintendent and Dr. Lawrence Shepoiser, superintendent of the Wichita school system.



MR. MOORE'S FRIENDLINESS with all students is typified by his chat with Sue Gump, '66 and is one of the reasons for his popularity with East Aces.

"AND THIS ONE'S FOR VINEGAR," explains Mr. Moore to his wife as he shows her a new addition to their antique collection.

"I'LL TEACH those kids not to put gum in the water fountains!" jokes Mr. Moore as he examines the gun which has won him so many trophies.

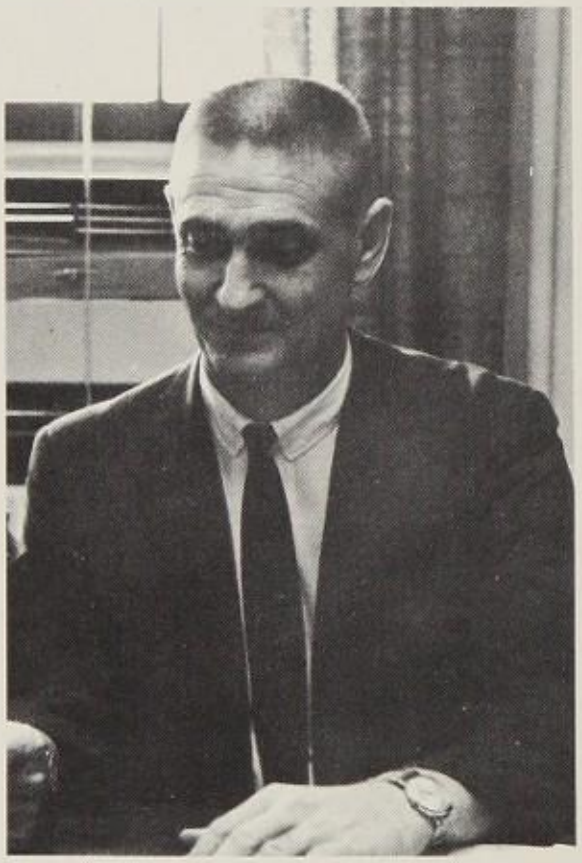
Administrators—

Discipline, Organize

Disciplining those who will not comply with school rules, scheduling classes for East's 3,000 pupils, and advising students on their countless problems, five administrators headed by Mr. Moore keep East running smoothly.

Office personnel handle school records, state and city reports, and student attendance. These administrators and staff strive to correlate the school curriculum and serve as a medium between students and faculty.

GERALD GRIBBLE, as assistant principal, disciplines and assists in over-all school supervision.



IT IS ALSO THE RESPONSIBILITY of assistant principal, W. L. McClanahan, to aid in over-all school supervision as well as to discipline students.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL, Flora Stebbins is responsible for East's master-schedule and arrangement of classes.

MRS. EVA KIEFER, as registrar, keeps student files in order and completes all school reports.

GEORGE COUGHER, as the head of East's industrial education department, sets up the budget and supervises its classes.

Counselors—

Personal Problems,

Guiding and Planning

East's counselors guide students through their high school years and advise them on future plans. Through tests and personal interviews, counselors become well acquainted with students and strive to give each personal attention.

Sophomores are introduced to school policy and are assisted in planning their course of study. Junior counselors administer tests which enable students to understand better their opportunities and abilities. Seniors are advised in choosing a college and career.

SENIOR COUNSELORS, Mrs. Eleanor King and Milton Goering, prepare the class of '65 for college or careers.

JUNIOR COUNSELORS, Mrs. Edith Worthington and John McCrey, administer tests to the class of '66 and guide them in planning a future.

SOPHOMORE COUNSELORS, Miss Harriet Hardy and Robert O'Rourke, introduce the class of '67 to East and aid them in choosing their courses.

Mathematics— Computing, Calculating, and Constructing

When a student solves an algebraic equation or constructs a geometric figure, he is acquiring mathematical knowledge which will help him to compete in today's fast moving, automated world. Eight subjects, varying from basic math to advanced courses in calculus and analytics, are offered to meet the needs of industrial students as well as of those who are college bound.

Modern math, a system instituted this year in all courses except plane-solid geometry, raises the learning level of each math course. Since the system uses the discovery approach, each student learns for himself the principles accepted in former math systems. A new vocabulary involving the language of sets, and a new teaching method unify East's math courses. This revised teaching technique illustrates the math department's efforts to keep abreast with developments in its field.

Social Studies— The Past, Present, and Future

"THIS IS MOSCOW, Communist headquarters," points out Ermal Lindquist, social studies instructor.

Required as part of the high school curriculum are courses in American history and government. The objective of the social studies department is to provide students with a knowledge of their country's freedoms, of their role in this country, and of the country's position in world affairs.

Junior classes trace the growth of our nation from its birth to present times. Studies are enriched with the "American Observer", an unbiased new's magazine. Seniors analyze the American Constitution and the organization of the government. Since this is an election year, some class time is spent discussing the campaign issues.

Increased enrollment in the supplementary courses such as world and global history, sociology, psychology, geography, economics, and current affairs indicate students' growing interest in the world situation and in their duty as United States citizens.

Foreign Language—

Communicating to Understand

Acquiring the ability to understand, speak, read, and write a foreign language is the goal of East's French, German, Latin, and Spanish students. Because of more extensive travel in the world, and increasing opportunities in careers requiring knowledge of foreign language, today's students realize a growing need to know a second language. For these reasons, emphasis now is being placed on the conversational rather than the literary aspects of the language. Three speech laboratories provide listening and oral practice for the entire class simultaneously.

First year students study the structure and vocabulary of the language. Second, third, and fourth year students study the customs of the country and strive to increase their understanding of the language. The principle objective of this department is to provide adequate background for further study in college or abroad.

Fine Arts— Visual, Vocal, Instrumental Departments

By group instruction and individual projects, the teachers of the fine arts department strive to develop the musical and artistic talents of each student. Art courses offered at East range from introduction to art, a cross section of basic techniques, to commercial art, an advanced study of art used in the business world. Throughout the year, students exhibit their works in East's halls, in city and in state exhibitions. Classes also visit Kansas University to study art work of college students.

East's music groups perform for intermediate schools and various city organizations, as well as for student body assemblies. Orchestra concerts are enjoyed by the public at evening performances, and band music provides halftime entertainment and accompanies cheering at football and basketball games.

Highlights of the year consisted of the band trip to Manhatten, Kansas, and the choir trip to Dallas, Texas.

Science— Laboratory Work and Lecture Increase Learning

Dissecting organisms, experimenting with chemicals and producing curious smells, and studying life through a microscope are a few of the activities taking place behind the doors of the science rooms. More than one-third of East's students are enrolled in the ten courses varying from basic to advanced biology and physiology.

Laboratory work, included in all courses, enables each student to confirm facts explained by the textbook. He sees the reaction of the mixture of two chemicals instead of reading about it. Students actually explore the vital organs of animals instead of studying sketches of them. The recently adapted chemistry study, in contrast to the former system, stresses laboratory experiments more than memorization of formulas. This department is striving for improvement in order to prepare students for their roles in this increasingly scientific world.

Physical Education—

Strong Body and Character

Directing a sense of fair play, developing clean minds and strong bodies, providing relaxing activities for leisure time, and helping boys and girls to become better skilled and coordinated, are the objectives of the physical educational teachers and coaches.

Girls participate in various sports that are divided seasonally into four nine-week periods. Sports day, held every fall, winter, and spring, gives the girls an opportunity to join girls from all six Wichita high schools in a day of fellowship and vigorous activity. Approximately 200 girls participate in the after school sport's program sponsored by the department.

The boys' program is divided into three 12 week periods and is directed by ten instructors. Intramurals and competitive sports after school create activities for leisure time and develop the skills taught during class.

Today's homemaker must not only prepare food, mend clothing, and care for children, but she also has a growing responsibility in managing the home budget, in making the home not only comfortable, but also attractive, and in being a social credit to her family. Girls in the home economics department gain knowledge to help them in their dual careers. Members of the cooking classes actually buy and prepare foods. Sewing students design and sew their own creations, then display them to the student body in their annual style show. Courses in home economics, child development, home and family living, and interior decorating are offered to meet the additional needs of girls.

Classes in homemaking might also be described as training for careers unlimited. Interior decorating, and teaching are two of the many careers open to girls with home economics backgrounds. This department strives to prepare girls for their roles in the home and business world.

English— Practicing Oral and Written Communication

Interpreting the writings of Shakespeare or debating the application of nuclear weapons; reading the works of classic philosophers or writing a composition on the problems of today; studying the structure of a sentence or building better vocabularies, are among the varied activities the English department directs.

All East students are required to study English for three years. Sophomores write themes, read classical books, learn correct grammatical construction, and develop more effective speech. One of the requirements for juniors is to compose a research theme, stimulating thought in organized, documented writing.

Seniors take composition, college reading, journalism, world or English literature, debate or speech and basic English. Advanced placement offered to superior students, is valid for college credit. These courses enable East students to qualify for college work or for a career.

Industrial Education—

Develops Vocational Skill

Striving to teach their students skills for initial employment as tradesmen in their chosen fields is the task of the vocational teachers. The senior section receive 'on the job training' to supplement the class instruction. Industrial arts is an introductory course providing a general education in the care and use of common tools, in purchasing building materials, and in exploring fields of industrial occupations.

The department received new equipment, including a drill press, mill tool and cutter grinder, lathe with hydraulic tracer, and two arc welders this year.

Drivers education teaches students the rules of the road and proper techniques of driving. Classes learn through books, lectures, mock driving in the drive-o-training trailer, and actual driving in city traffic.

New teaching methods and new and better equipment improve the industrial department each year.

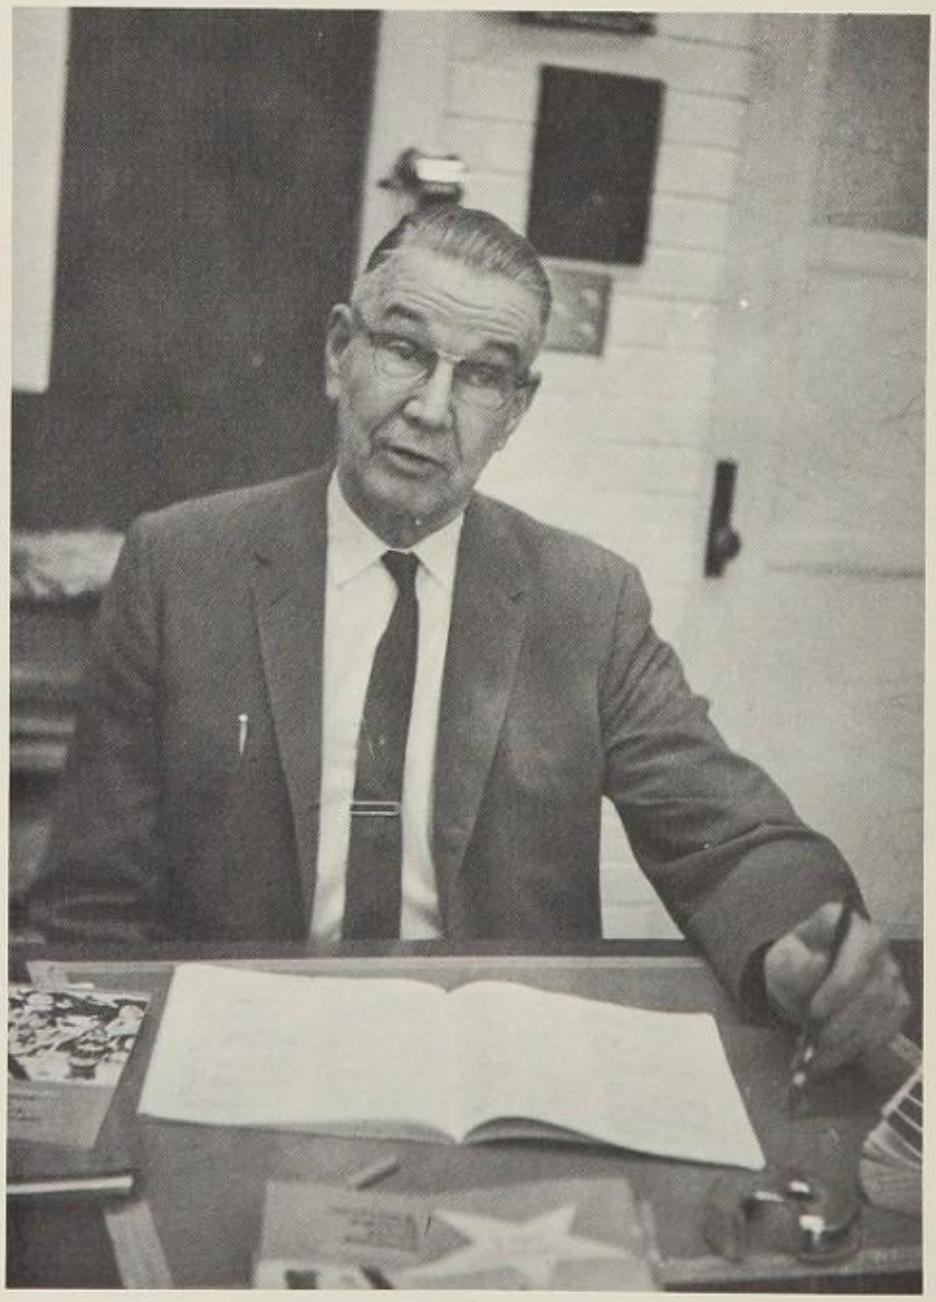
Special Education—
Preparing Without Pressure

Helping East students who learn at a slower pace than the average student, the special education program keys its assignments to be done in a more leisurely manner. The program, used for the first time at East last year, has been broadened to include 27 students in two classes. These two groups, under the direction of Claude Kissick, include students chosen because of their past grades and achievements. Supplementing history, English, and mathematics are vocational studies for boys and homemaking courses for girls, offered to these teens to introduce them to skills probably necessary for success in their future.

The purpose of the program is to prepare these students for their future vocations when they leave East. East is not only trying to help these students adjust to the daily routine of school, but also, to fit them into the world.



INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION is given to low achievers by Claude Kissick, special education teacher.

FIVE DAYS A WEEK the school nurse, Mrs. Rose Johansen, cares for ill students, assists in dental and optical checks, and teaches Aces healthy habits to follow. Taking the pulse of Sandy Perlenfein, '65, Mrs. Johansen advises her on proper health care.

Library—Books For Research Or Enjoyment Give Knowledge

Filling the racks of East's library, Aces find 17,000 books ranging in topics from mysteries to classical Greek myths and from adventure stories to Shakespearian sonnets. Five hundred of these books were added this year and were chosen by requests from teachers, recommendations by reviewers, and replacement reading lists.

Junior Aces compiling research themes use the library's facilities including magazines, encyclopedias, and volumes of books. Two librarians, three assistant librarians, and 36 student helpers who devote their hour of study time to library assistance, aid Aces who need their advice.

Enabling Aces to obtain supplementary information, library presents the opportunity to further their learning at East.

"My Three Angels"—

Convicts Turn Heroes And Save Endangered Household

When three badmen—convicts in fact—become angels of the household where they are employed as roofers by a family who is in danger of having no roof over their heads, the result is a pleasant, preposterous comedy. These characters become heroes when they save the family from the cousin who is trying to oust Papa from his business. The cousin is accompanied by his nephew who is jilting Papa's daughter.

The 10 member cast, directed by Robert Washburn, spent long hours perfecting the parts they were to play. Eight crew members did the backstage work of building the set, and getting props, make-up, and costumes ready for the opening night.

H.M.S. Pinafore— Or the Lass That Loved A Sailor

When Sir Joseph, First Lord of the Admiralty, arrives on Her Majesty's Ship, the "Pinafore" to claim Josephine, the captain's daughter, in marriage, he is surprised to see that she rejects his offer. Lost in her love for a lowly sailor, Josephine is torn between the security Sir Joseph offers and the love Ralph, the sailor offers. Deciding to forget the disparity in their ranks, Ralph and Josephine, accompanied by the sailors, attempt to tiptoe away but are caught by her father. Little Buttercup solves the problem with her confession that Ralph and the Captain were exchanged when they were babies.

The 42 member cast of principals, relatives, and sailors spent two months learning the music and detailed movements which included the management of hoop skirts. Fifty-four orchestra members and 37 backstage crew members assisted in "setting sail!"

Instrumental—Orchestra, Band Perform With Precision

Blue uniformed band members lead the half-time entertainment at home football games and bolster school spirit during basketball games, as well as provide enjoyable marching music. Concerts in the East auditorium, also under the direction of Kenneth Thompson, change the pace of the band's booming. Programs presented to junior highs encourage students entering high school to continue their music education. Marchers in the Christmas parade on a crisp December day keep in quick step as they entertain onlookers. The pep band, led by Mickey Sheaks, plays rousing music during pep rallies before East's games.

Performing for Pittsburg State College students in Pittsburg, Kansas, highlighted the yearly activities of East High School's orchestra. Under the direction of Kenneth Thompson, the group played in the production of "Pinafore," gave two annual concerts, and entertained several junior high schools. Orchestra students work during first hour every school day to develop the tone and balance which has made them an outstanding state high school music group.

DRAWING THE BOW and pinching the strings, Joel Taylor '65, contributes his part to the full tone of the orchestra.

Vocal Groups—Entertaining

With Harmony In Melodies

Weeks before the four yearly vocal music programs are presented to their audiences, voices ringing in the auditorium can be heard practicing and perfecting choral numbers. The "Messiah" inspires its standing audience during the Easter program. Fall, Christmas, and spring programs are part of the activity for the girls' choir of 60, the boys choir of 60, or the concert choir of combined voices under the direction of Jay Hershey and Mrs. Mary Huffman. In addition to the student body audiences, the choir sings for church groups, junior high schools, and civic meetings. Highlighting the year was the invitation to sing at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Madrigal singers, a group whose music is usually informal, entertain Aces and local organizations. They practice their harmony during third hour directed by Mrs. Mary Huffman.

Before and after school girls', boys' and sophomore ensembles rehearse for the varied programs they present throughout the year. In the spring these groups enter city, district, and state contests for awards.

"DECK THE HALLS with Boughs of Holly", sing Madrigal singers Jeannie Pirtle, Jeanne Herrick, and Linda Gibson, all '65, as the group fills East's halls with Christmas music.

ROBED SINGERS add to the reverent attitude developed during the annual Thanksgiving assembly.

"GRACEFULLY DONE, the movement should look like this," demonstrates Miss Rosella Towson, sponsor, to club members.

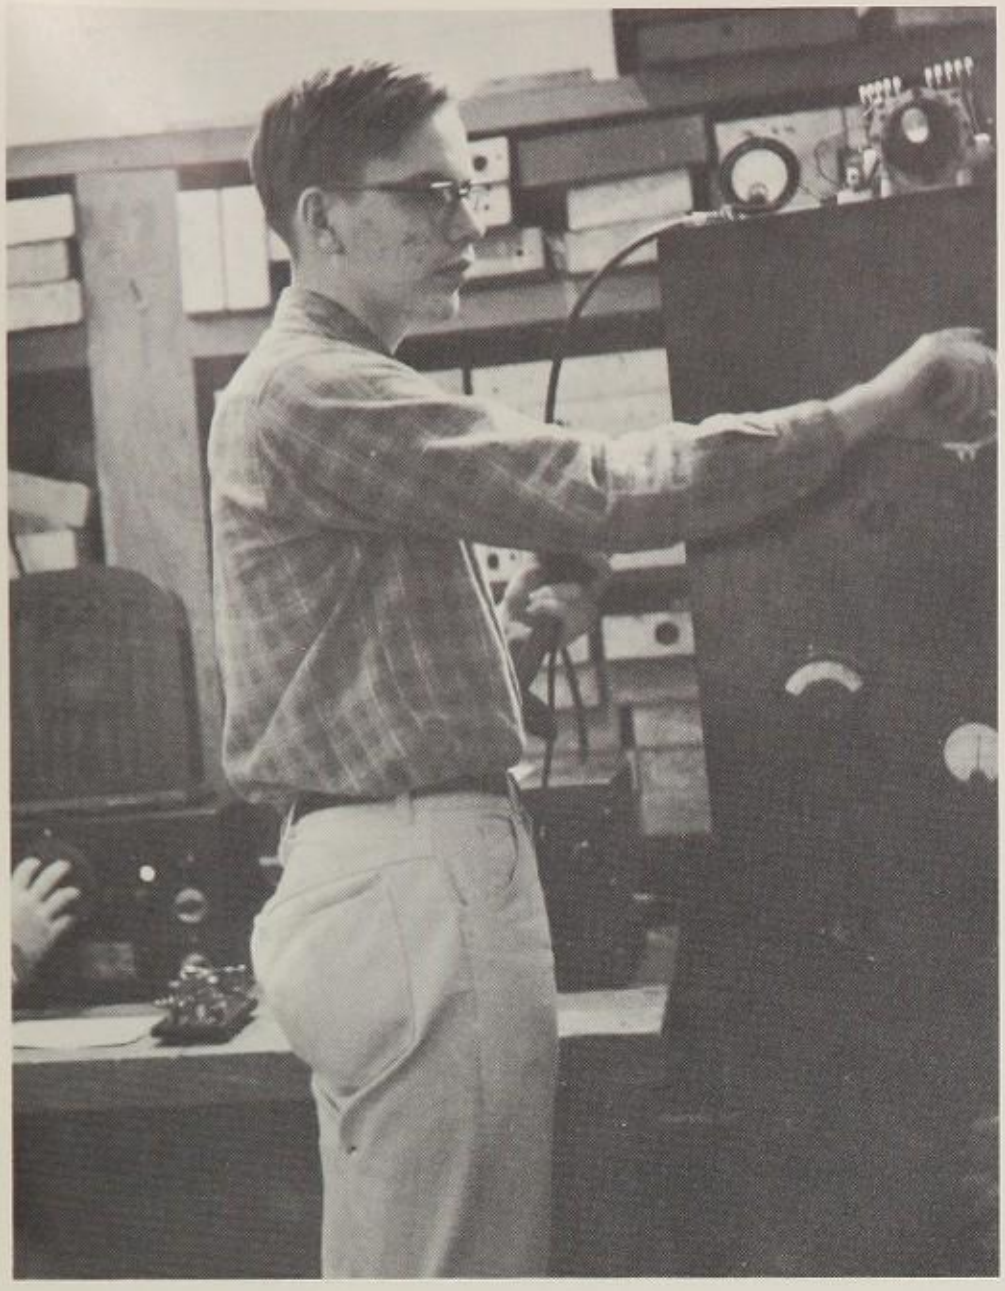
FOLLOWING THE EXAMPLE of the instructor, Kelly Arnold, '66, develops skill to be used in later dancing.

CREATING CHOREOGRAPHY to go with the music, Pat Presson, '67; Carmen Erwin, '65; and Sandra Tutt, '67, members of a dance team, combine their knowledge of steps and rhythm.

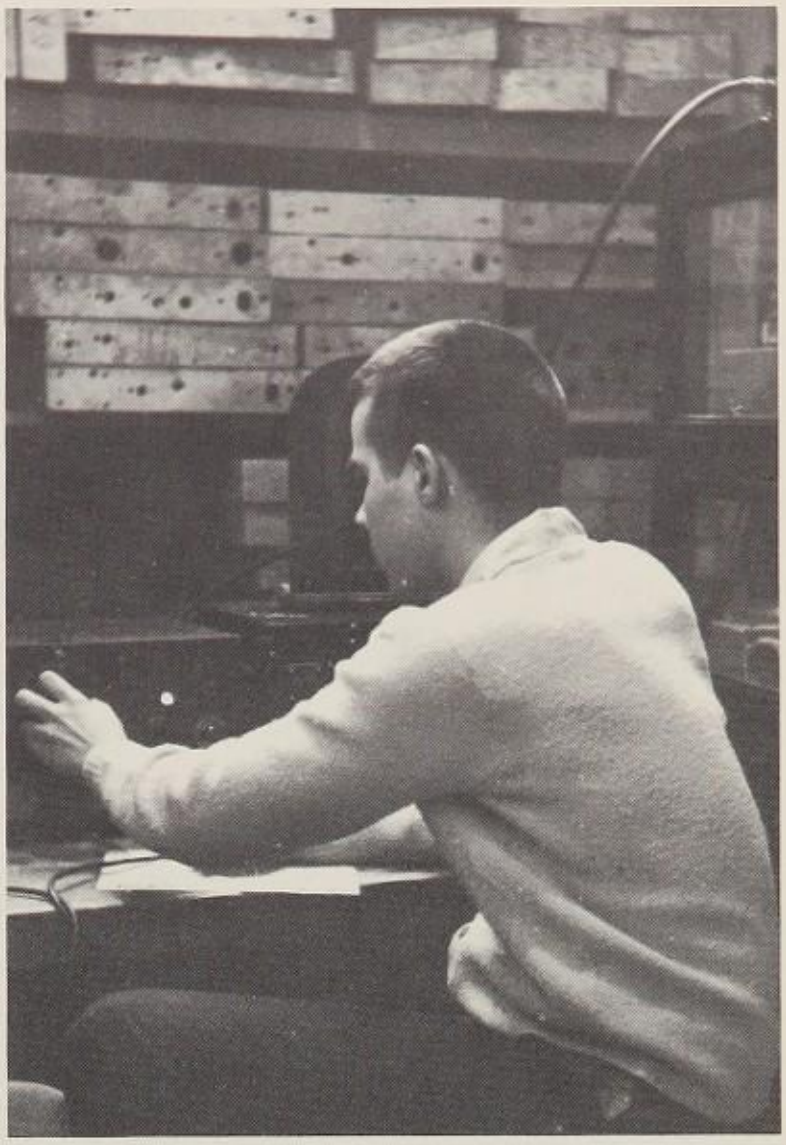
Modern Dance—Elements Of Dance Studied and Applied

Girls in all three years of high school who are interested in developing grace and rhythm may join modern dance club. Instruction is directed to the inexperienced as well as to those who have studied dance previously. The first nine weeks is spent learning the basic elements of dance and practicing skills on simple projects.

During the second nine weeks, the girls combine their ideas to create a dance which expresses the meaning they wish to convey. Interesting and different choreography make the dance original. When completed, it is presented at the modern dance program in the spring. Club meetings are held once a week after school under the instruction of physical education teacher, Miss Rosella Towson.



PREPARING TO SEND A MESSAGE through the microphone, Jack Sizemore, '66, tunes in a fellow "ham".

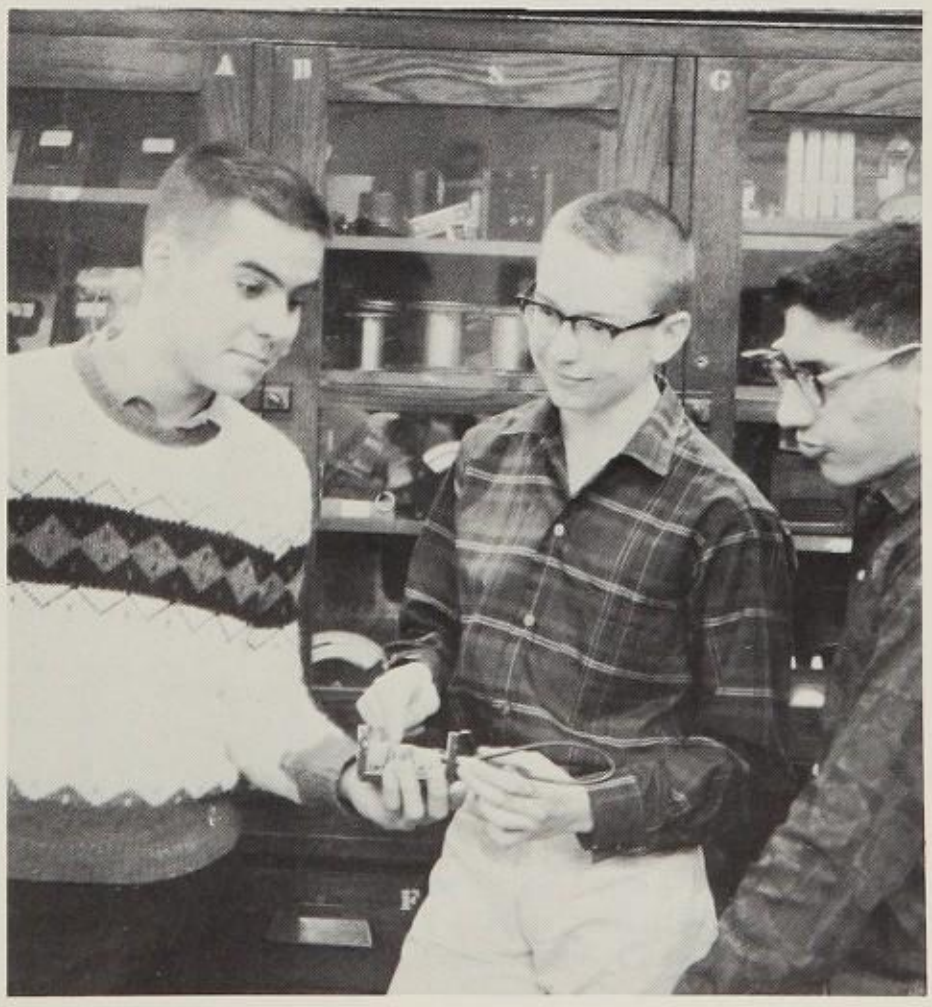


RECEIVING MESSAGES on the radio set in the vocational building, Mike Heathman, '65, the club president, furthers his knowledge of radio theory.

East Amateur Radio Society—"Hams" for Radios

"Hams", as amateur radio operators are nicknamed, are welcome to join EARS, a club new to East this year. Programs during the Monday evening meetings are designed to teach members the fundamentals of operating a radio and how to send and receive code. One member or the sponsor, John Bobula, sends coded messages to the others who strive to decode five words a minute. When members have acquired this skill, they are eligible to receive their novice license, permitting them to operate a radio at an assigned power and frequency. Some members are building radio pits at home, where they receive encouragement and instruction from the more advanced "hams". This group sponsored a booth at the "Carnival for Cash" for the first time this year. Club membership is open to any interested Ace, regardless of his radio knowledge.

LEARNING THE COMPONENTS of a radio, enable Mike Heathman, '65; Gerald Kirk, '65; and Brock Jabara, '65 to build their own sets at home.



German Club—Customs

Studied, Language Spoken

Skits from Germany, speakers familiar with the country, and songs traditional with the people enrich the studies of East High German students. Any Ace interested in Germany may join the club, sponsored by Mrs. Jean Huff and Ray Wallace, and attend the meetings held on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

Activities, designed to educate as well as to entertain, include a fall picnic, a Christmas party, and a banquet held in the spring. These activities are held in German style with German customs prevailing. Their beer garden at the "Carnival for Cash" always draws much attention even though it sells Pepsi instead of the usual German drink.

EXCHANGE STUDENT Klaus Habernich lectures members on the true life of a German teen-ager.

ADMIRING the artwork on German mugs and the inscription "Ein Guter Trunk Macht Alte Jung" meaning "a good drink makes the old young," Molly Hauber and Charyl Dotson both '65, officers wonder at the truth of the proverb.

"I MOVE that our booth at the "Carnival for Cash" sell a more popular German beverage instead of America's soft drinks," jokes Richard Coe, '67, at a planning meeting of German club.

FAIRY TALES in Spain intrigue children like those of any other country, think club officers Cindy Poindexter, '66, Julie Phares, '65, Nancy Lyons, '65, and Mike Crostan, '66.

Spanish Club—Cultura, Personas, Regíon De Spain

Carols sung in Spanish, pinatas at parties, maracas, tapes, and records bring Spain closer to members of "El Circula de Espanol." East's Spanish club. Their objective is to learn more about the culture and the people of Spain as well as to perfect their use of the language. Any Spanish speaking Ace may join the club, sponsored by Miss Kathryn Wiens and Mrs. Angela Stratton. Only Spanish is used to conduct the meetings which feature guest speakers and films. One of the club projects is the jail at the "Carnival for Cash" held in the spring. All activities are designed to enrich school courses in Spanish and encourage members to continue their study of the country and its customs.

LISTENING INTENTLY to Spanish-speaking Nancy Lyons, '65, club members find the language more meaningful when they are able to apply it.

"CAN YOU IMAGINE living there?" questions Judy McDonald, '65, as she examines the style of houses in Spain.

French Club—Culture

Studied, Pronunciation Aided

"PARLEZ-vous francais?" "Do you speak French?" is asked of each Ace before he may join French club because only French is spoken at the meetings. Members study the culture of France and gain a better understanding of its people through slides and guest speakers familiar with the country. Parties given throughout the year are styled in a French manner with French entertainment and refreshments. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Mildred Leaper and Miss Mary Lou Auer, all teachers, has charge of the "Sidewalk cafe" at the "Carnival for Cash." Completing the year's activities is a spring banquet. At this time awards are given to the Ace with the highest test scores in each French class.

FRENCH CLUB PARTIES aren't complete without films of France to interest members with scenes from another world, think Janet Ryan, Corkie Cotter, and Judy LeBlond, all '65.

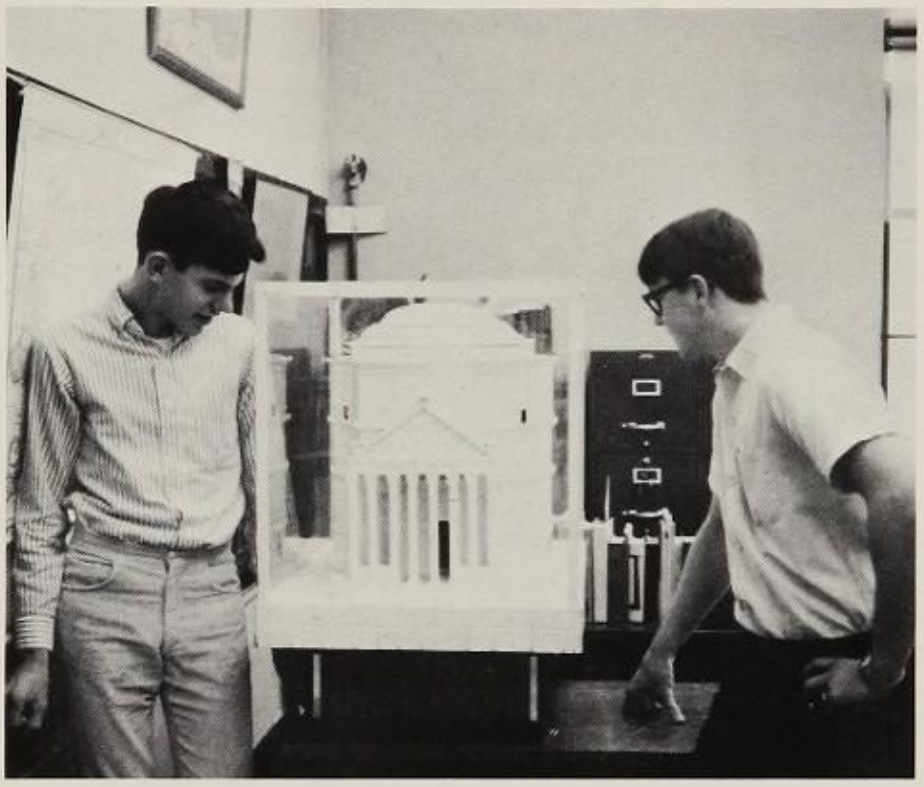
DOOR PRIZE DRAWINGS before each meeting encourage members to be on time. Linda Pottenger, '65, gives Jane Fieback, '66, a chance to try her luck at winning today's prize.

OFFICERS Mike Horner, Linda Northcutt, Judy LeBlond, president; Linda Pottenger, all '65; Marcia Spurrier, '66; and Gayle Pipkin, '65, study their lessons before meetings in order to be successful in conducting them entirely in French.

"YOU CAN'T WORK a Latin cross-word puzzle." challenges Keith Stuewe, '65, to Sue McKinney, '65, and Beth Lindquist, '66, during a meeting of the club cabinet.

Latin Club—Replicas, Customs, Language of Rome

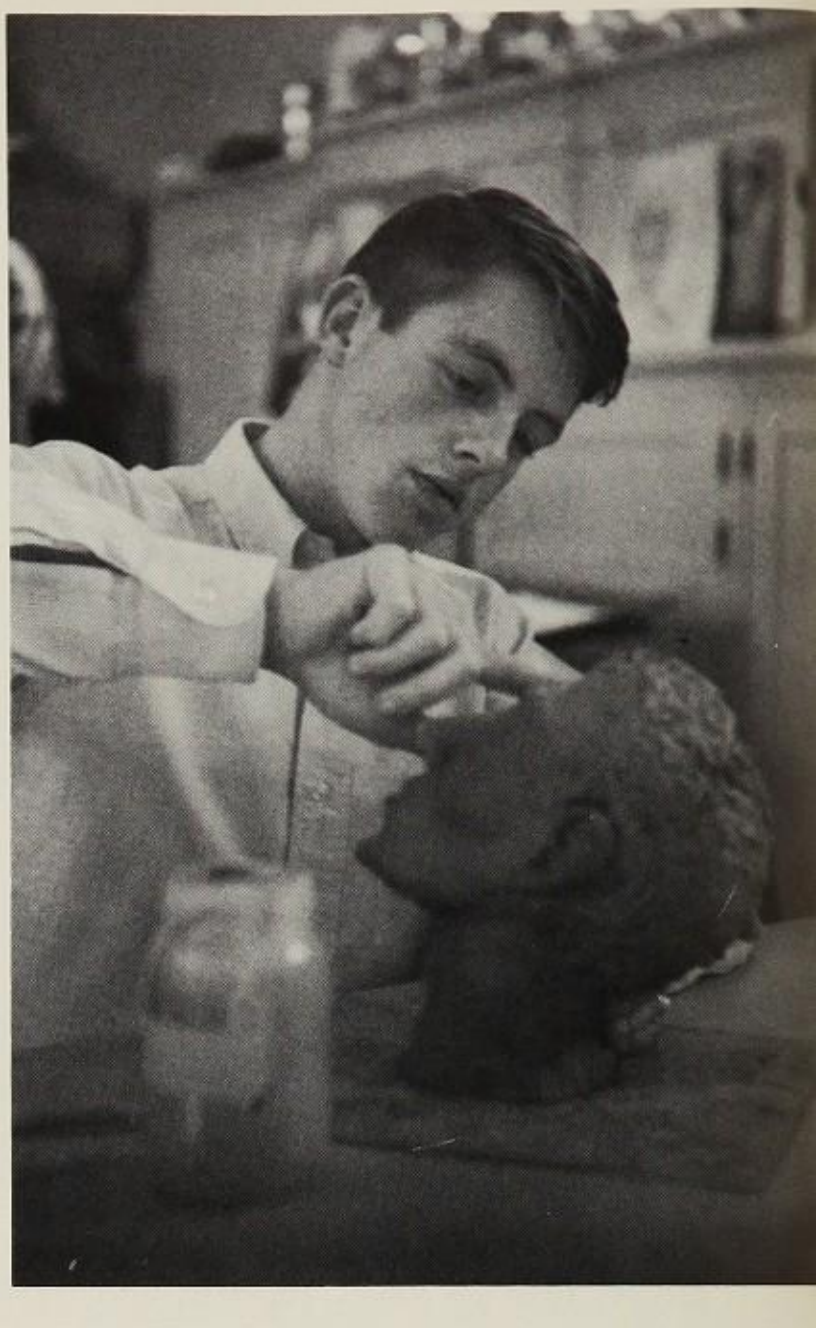
Gaining a sense of the civilization of Rome is the objective of East's Latin club. Members perpetuate the ancient empire's customs and language through plays, reports, and parties held in Roman tradition. Two main activities of the club are the annual Saturnalia, a festival recognized by the Romans, and the spring banquet. Only students taking Latin or having previously had two years of study of the language are allowed to join. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Blanche Lohrenz also strives to enlighten its members in ways of the classical society by basing its governmental structure on that of the Roman government. Latin club officials even retain such titles as senators and aediles.



IS THIS where we got our idea for the White House?" wonders Charles Novak and Robert Gruenloh, '67, studying Roman architecture as they prepare the decorations for the annual Latin club banquet.

"HOW DO YOU FIT 'puella' into five spaces?" is the question to be solved by Sue McKinney, president, and Mrs. Blanche Lohrenz, sponsor, as club members try to solve a crossword puzzle in Latin.

CLUB OFFICERS Florine Adams, '65; Linda Baker, '65; Nancy Sawnders, '65; Jack Shively, '67; and Kim Field, '66, admire student artwork completed during a club meeting.



LIQUID CLAY is used to smooth Gordon Brown's, '65, greenware masterpiece before it is placed into the kiln to bake.

FINISHING TOUCHES added to this painting, Debbie Wells, '65, completes her project for the annual art club contest and exhibit.

Art Club— Project Time,

Training Develops Talent

PROVIDING extra time and instruction for Aces to exercise their artistic talents is the main purpose of the art club. Membership is open to any student. In this way students unable to fit an art course into their high school schedule may still develop their skills under the training of instructors Miss Dorothy Eberhardt and Tom Dickerson, club sponsors. During the year members exhibit their projects in the school halls. An annual art club contest is also included in the activities. Field trips, including a bus trip to Kansas University in Lawrence, are financed by the selling of book covers. The club also sponsors the portrait and balloon booth at the "Carnival for Cash."

LITTLE ONES give eagerly to UNICEF, a United Nations fund, as Y-teen member Betsy Loyd, '65, collects for the club's contribution.

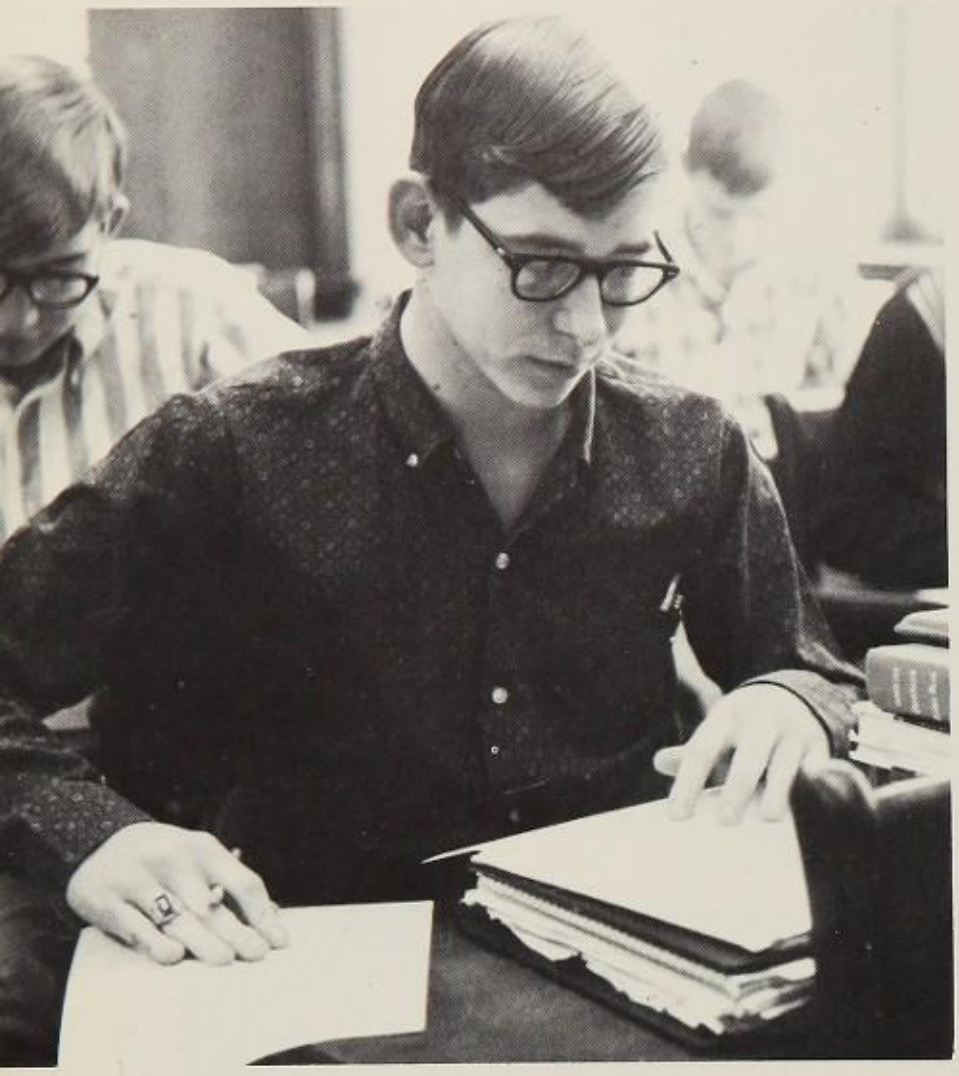
Y-Teens—Gaining Wisdom

And Understanding By Serving

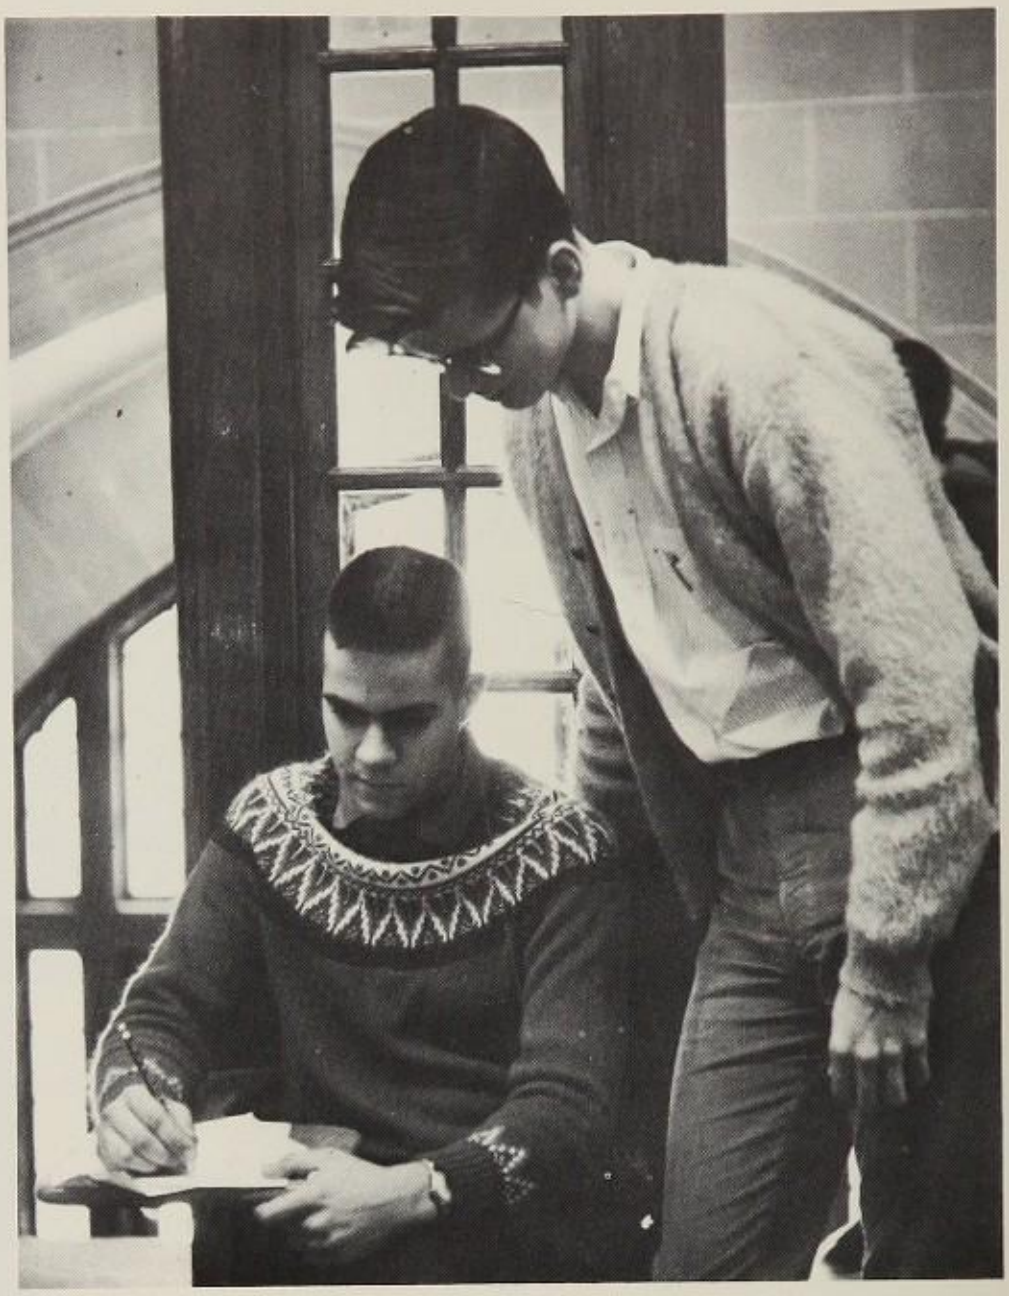
Doing its part in furthering Christian fellowship as a branch of the YWCA, Y-teens has been a part of East High for 41 years. Among its many service projects include a Christmas party for the children at the Institute of Logopedics. Activities and meetings are designed to help Y-teen members grow in wisdom and understanding of themselves, of others, and of God. Sponsored by Mrs. Norine Hamilton, Miss Francine Davis, Mrs. Nelle Beals, Mrs. Mary Huffman, Miss Merla Kivett, and Miss Jeanne Ponds, the club meets one night a month in addition to the school meetings twice monthly. Making good use of its meeting time, Y-teens provides its members with guest speakers, serves pot luck dinners, and plans ways to aid the community. Members also run the school bookstore during their free hours.

MONTHLY POT LUCK DINNERS provide a time for chatting and fellowship for Beverly Doll, Corkie Cotter, Donna Pray, Rita Ravens, and Jean Ryan, all '65.

"NOTEBOOK PAPER ANYONE?" hope officers Carol Sparnroft, '65; Barb Moyer, '65, president; Beth Lindquist, '64; and Linda Redford, '65, as they work in the club sponsored bookstore.



"THIS THEOREM COULD BE A WHOLE TREATTISE on mathematics, it's so long," thinks Tom Smith, '65, as he applies his newly added knowledge in solving a problem.



CARRYING their mathematical interests into their spare time, Mike Heathman and Gene Vaughn, both '65, prepare a problem to present to the math club.

PUZZLING OVER A PROBLEM PRESENTED TO THEM by a speaker, math club members' minds are challenged during their morning program.

Math Club— Peculiarities, Problems, Puzzles, Challenge

Games designed to improve mathematical skill, methods devised to shorten problem working time, and tricks used to perform fascinating entertainment are studied by members of math club. Aces may join if they have completed, or are now taking a course in plane geometry. Club meetings include guest speakers, talks by members on a mathematical subject they find interesting, films, and field trips. The club, sponsored by Miss Esther Benedict and Mrs. Lydia Allen, math teachers, stives to increase mathematical interest of its members and provide them with additional information and instruction to enrich courses offered in school.

"I PREFER OLD FASHIONED METHODS OF EDUCATION," jokes Darlene Millbern to president Sidonia Schaffer and Molly Hauber, all '65.

AIDING Roosevelt junior high students with their art work, Launie Wolford, '65, applies the help she receives at mock teaching sessions during club meetings, below.

The Future Teachers Of America—Trial Teaching, Actual Practice Educates

Aces planning to enter the teaching profession receive encouragement from East's future teachers club. Speakers, introducing members to this field and acquainting them with new methods of teaching being used in the classroom, develop their interest in the profession. Mock teaching sessions during club meetings provide valuable practice and help members who teach in a local junior high school. Both opportunities make dreams of entering the educational field closer to reality. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Alma Hass, Mrs. Jean Huff, Mrs. Glenna Gassel, Mrs. Eleanor King, and Mrs. Betty Pollard, visits Wichita State University annually to observe the college teaching methods. Each year the club gives a scholarship to a well-qualified Ace who is planning to enter the teaching profession.

PICKLE SELLING is an unique way of earning money, but it seems to prove successful for Nancy Nelson, '65, who presents her customer, Barbara Huston, '65, with her purchase.

AROUND THE WORLD, the Red Cross is helping others thinks June Welch, '66, as she displays a club poster.

"IT WON'T HURT when we get finished!" grin senior officers Nancy Nelson, Linda Redford, and Sally Jones, president, as they practice Red Cross techniques on June Welch.

Red Cross—Spends Time

Serving Those Near And Far

Volunteer work at the Veteran's Hospital and at the local chapter of the Red Cross gives club members a better understanding of the service work being done by the American Red Cross. Members sell pickles after school to raise money. These funds are used for the purpose of sending gift chests to the less fortunate throughout the world. The club, sponsored by Mrs. Christine Cole, is doing its job in representing East as an active part of the National Red Cross. Members encourage other Aces to recognize the needs of those far and near and to give of their time to help others.

STOP AND THINK ACES—an accident could not be too far away is the message conveyed by the sign being moved to a vital area by Jan Bertrum, '65.

PREPARING THEIR PRESENTATION for the panel at Wichita Youth for Safety meeting, officers Carol Woodruff and Lynette Jefferies, both '65, represent East at the city-wide function.

Safety Club— Cautious

Aces Lessen Traffic Accidents

Promoting safety on East's campus and on the streets of Wichita, East's safety club plays a major part in a city-wide program of traffic safety. The second floor safety display case is kept filled with simple reminders of why Aces should constantly be safety conscious. Other projects include fund raising car washes and East car decal sales. The club's objective is to educate Aces on the dangers of careless driving. In this way, the group hopes to cut down the accident count. Sponsored by J. D. Edmiston and Vern Logan, the club is represented at the inter-city safety council and takes part in the safety lane program in the spring.

This year the annual Kansas Safety convention was held in Wichita and time was spent joining other Wichita high school safety clubs to plan this event. Members still find time to paint "Walk with the Light" on the sidewalk crossing intersections.

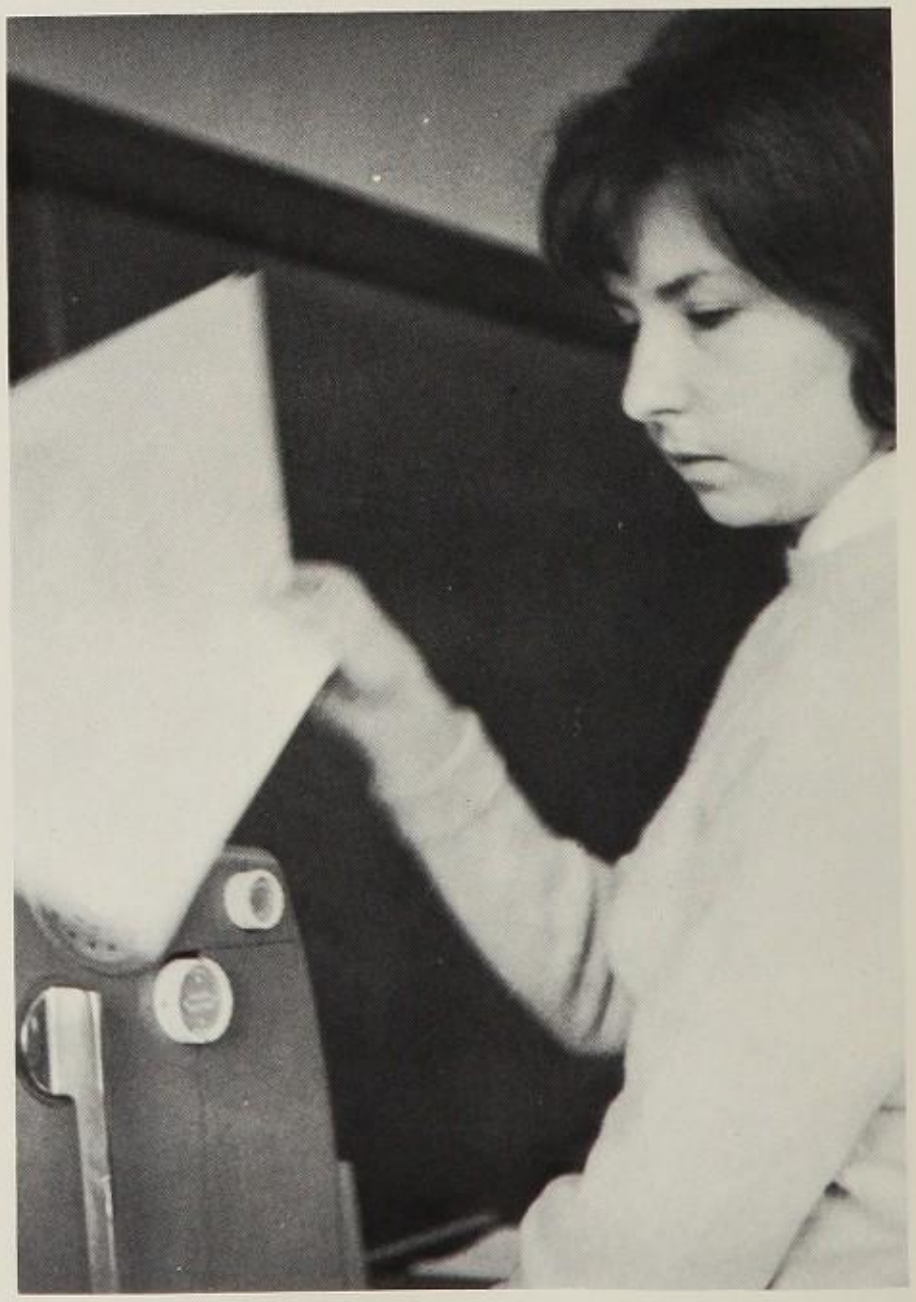
POSTERS IN THE HALLS, exhibited by Cathe Jarvis '65, warn drivers to regard others' rights after school hours.

RACING AGAINST TIME, senior officers Janet McNelly and Gloria VanAllen type speedily as Kay Schrimshaw, Linda Ball, and Myrna Harrison, president, check their accuracy.

Business Club— Planning for Careers with Experience

Business club is designed to prepare better career minded Aces who will enter the business world after graduation. Membership is open to all students taking or having completed a business course. Speakers from local business firms acquaint students with what will be expected of them as employees. Talks on general appearance, attitude, and adjustability educate members for a successful future. Other activities during the year include social events where members gather over breakfast and share their mutual interest in business. In the spring the club cooperates in planning Business Education Day. On this day, an East business student, club member or not, may visit downtown firms for tours. Lunch then follows the morning's educational session. All activities and speakers further the members' knowledge of business and encourage him to pursue interest in the field.

"WHICH DIRECTION DOES THE SQUIGGLE GO?" wonders Cheryl Rice, '65, as she prepares her shorthand lesson.



PUTTING HER ABILITIES TO WORK, Georgeanna Hailey, '65, aids East's teachers by mimeographing tests and gains experience in handling the machine.

Business Education Club— From the Classroom to Office, Learning Echoes

Students in East's distributive education program, those who attend school in the morning and work at accredited jobs during the afternoon, have joined to form business education club—a branch of the national Distributive Education Club of America. Members attend the state convention held annually at Emporia to receive tips on competitive retail selling. Displays and speakers encourage project selling within each school. Individuals and state schools compete in trying to outsell their competitors. Later, results are compared and members prosper by learning the techniques of others. These selling projects enable students to apply their classroom training.

STANDING BEHIND A SALES DISPLAY CASE, club officers Teri Chevreaux, '65; Tim Shaw, '65; and Bennie Logan, '65, review selling techniques suggested in the business manual.

OPERATING A CASH REGISTER to develop speed required in her job, Judy Hodson, '65, gets practical experience from club membership.

DEMONSTRATING HIS SELLING ABILITY, Jim Chester, '65, uses a notebook as a prop to practice persuasion.

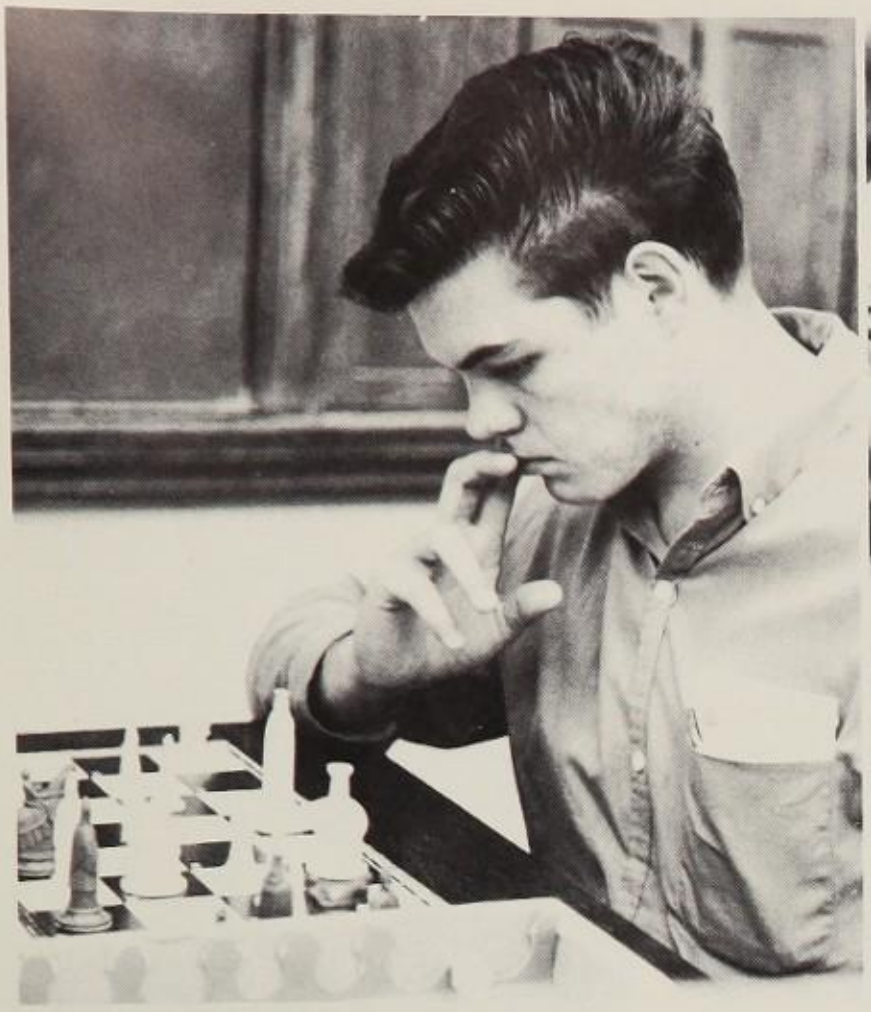
PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT thinks Ken Cole, '66, and John Swinney, '65, as they load a projector for inspection during a club meeting.

Motion Picture Operator's Club— Aid Students By Showing Films

PROVIDING East with its audio-visual method of education is the task of motion picture operators' club members. The group welcomes any student who is willing to give up some of his spare time to operate movie projectors for East's classes. The club not only instructs its members in the operation of projectors but also requires that they take a test on the proper use of the machines. In this way the club strives to ensure East of having qualified motion picture operators and films unmarred by abusive handling. The club, sponsored by George Cougher, vocational department coordinator, holds its regular meetings every Tuesday. Members must keep the projectors in good working condition as well as show all the films.

FROM THE MEETINGS TO THE CLASSROOMS, Kenny Cole, '65, uses his knowledge of projectors to bring learning situation films to East students.

BRIEFING STUDENTS on the techniques of handling projectors and cooperating with teachers, George Cougher provides operators with necessary information.



"WHICH ONE SHALL I MOVE to block my opponent?" wonder Tom Callen, '65; Benney Phew, '67; and Tom Smith, '65, as they concentrate to develop their plays.

Chess Club—Concentration Needed To Become Champions

New to Aces this year, chess club offers all interested students an opportunity to compete with fellow chess players of equal skill. No dues are payed by the 20 members whose only requirement is that they know the game of chess. Points are kept and added to or subtracted from each member's total according to his wins and losses. The meeting time is spent competing for the honor and title of being a champion player. Not only is there competition within the club but East High's 10 player team also attends tournaments among Wichita High schools having similar clubs.

Members find their skills increase when they are given an opportunity to learn tactics used by other players who have better patterns of offense. Steve Allen, social science teacher, sponsors the club which ranks high in the city-wide tournaments. Players are rewarded for their skill only through the honor that comes with winning.

DUELING TO THE FINISH, Benney Phew, '67, and Ryan Dybdahl, '65, match their skills in competition as Sam Huston, '65, president, looks on hoping to pick up a few tips on tactics from the two officers.

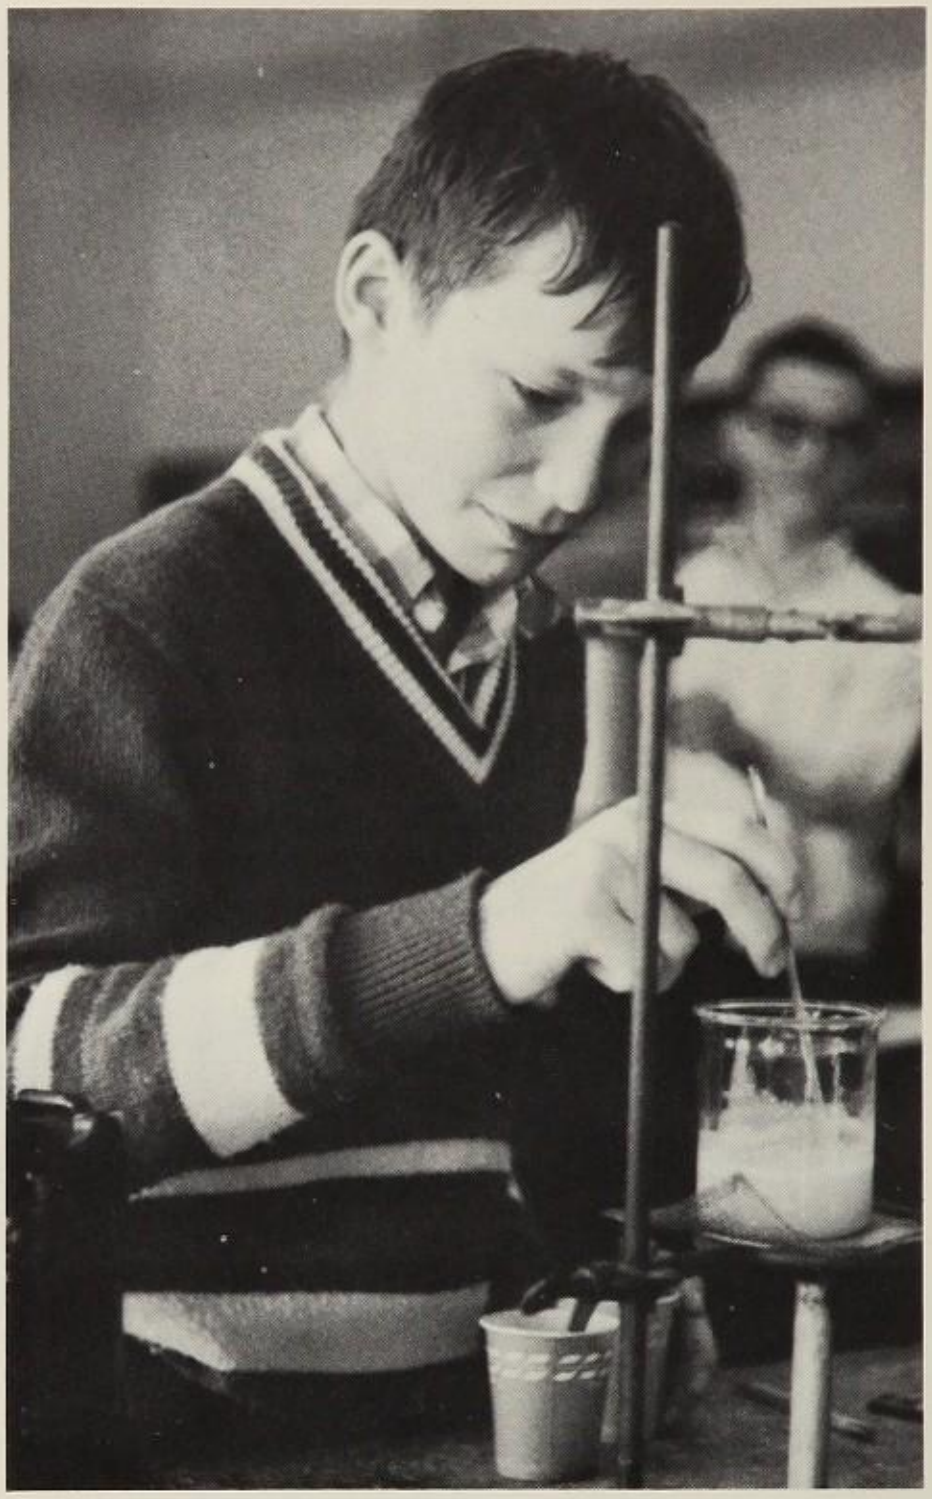
Science Club— Pursue Interests, and Develop Skill

STUDENTS seeking time for conducting experiments outside class period, or those who do not take any science courses find that science club offers an opportunity for futhering their studies.

The club, sponsored by Willard Gillmore, Stanley Hunt, Donald Prophet, and Gerald Tague, takes field trips to local sights of interest such as testing laboratories and hospitals. In addition, the club meetings include films and speakers designed to acquaint members with this modern world of science.

Aces who plan to enter the Wichita Science Fair or other science competition may receive help on their projects during the meetings.

"DOUBLE BUBBLE, TOIL AND TROUBLE," chants Sharon Maring, '65, as she mixes a threatening brew.



SMACKING HIS LIPS in anticipation, Mark Bargen, '66, prepares fudge, making practical use of his chemistry knowledge.

"JUST ONE DROP MORE and the reactions will start," advises Paulette Lightner, president, and Mark Waite to Mike Heathman, senior officers of science club.

HEALTH NURSE, Mrs. Rose Johansen, and Jan Utterback, '65, are glad to find that their patient is really not so sick. Members of medical club learn skills that will become habits in their profession.

Future Medical Careers Club— Goals In Profession Inspire Learning

STUDENTS expressing a desire to enter a medical profession may join East High's medical careers club, sponsored by Carolyn McCoy and Grace Jones. The club conveys information on all phases of medicine. Speakers, including doctors, nurses, and technologists, aquaint members with qualifications needed for medical careers and opportunities offered in the field.

Films and discussions on current health problems are designed to interest students in community work, such as voluntary work at local hospitals.

All club activities serve to increase the members' knowledge of the medical profession and make goals a reality.

"AWE," groans Bruce Price as the nurse uses him to demonstrate to the club members the skill involved in caring for a sore throat.

"SICK PATIENT," Tony Jones, '65, receives medical attention from Carol Shapely, '66, and Marilyn Tuepker, '65, all club officers.

"THINGS AREN'T GOING so well as we had planned," reports President C. J. Merrill, center, to other officers Barry Herron, Jim VinZant, and Carl Williams, all '65, as they discuss the difficulties in selling season tickets.

LETTERMEN form their own cheering section to cheer East on to victory."

Lettermen's Club—

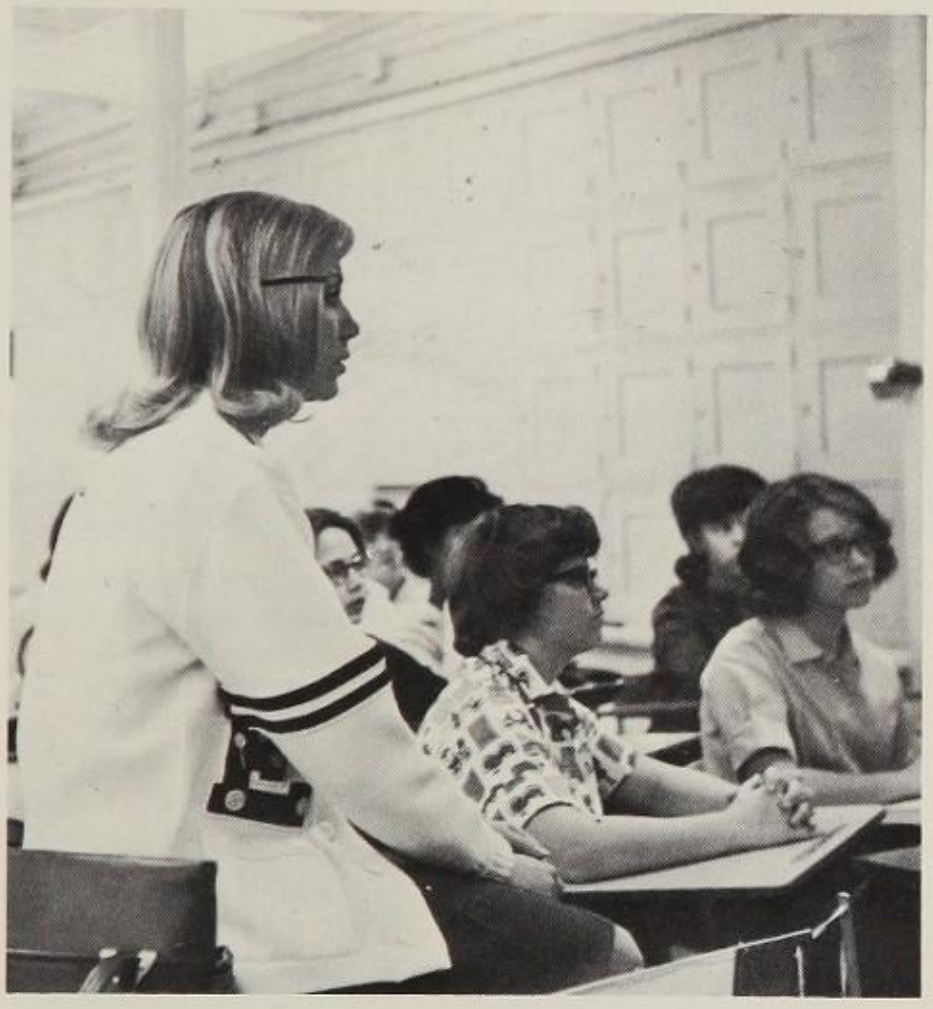
Ticket Sales, Pep Section Contribute to Athletics

BOOSTING school spirit and promoting good sportsmanship are included in the duties of over 100 East High lettermen. These boys, who wear the blue and white letter jackets, must take the letterman's oath before they become members of the club.

Sponsored by boy's gym coach Marc Webb, lettermen's club is kept busy selling football and basketball season tickets and organizing its own cheering section at the games. In these ways lettermen fulfill their pledge to uphold the name of East High.

"JUST A MINUTE, I know my money is in here somewhere," pleads Merry Clark to letterman Alan Wadley, both '65, as he applies his season ticket selling techniques.

TOTALING A PROSPECTIVE member's points gained during after school sports is one of the duties of Robby Walters, president; and her assistant officers Donna Ree, Eva Florez, Sue McKinney, and Virginia Bitner, all '65.



LISTENING to plans about selling pencils printed with the season's football schedule is one activity during a club meeting.

Letterwomen's Club—

After-School Athletics' Points

FELLOWSHIP during after-school sports, intramurals, and club meetings is enjoyed by members of the letterwomen's club. Any girl who has massed 400 points in after-school sports to earn a letter and who can maintain a "C" scholastic average may join the club. Activities during the year include selling football and basketball programs.

The club, sponsored by Mrs. Carolyn McCoy and Miss Helen Kennedy, girls gym instructors, meets before school on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

Each year the club provides a scholarship for an outstanding Ace letterwoman.

"WE MUST SELL THOSE SPORTS PROGRAMS," instructs Robby Walters, '65, to the letterwomen at a morning club meeting.

FIRST COUPLE at the first hangar, Pat Hubbard, '66, and Don Bish, '65, dance to music by the Breakers.

HANGAR BOARD includes: front row: Sandy Williams, Linda Northcutt, Susie Van Slyke, Robby Walters, Linda Pottenger, Romie Roberts, and Julie Waskiewicz, all '65. second row: Vicki Illgner, Patsy Burnett, Sue Gump, Pat Gingrich, Diana Wallace, all '66, Julie Phares, and Darlene Vice both '65. third row: Dan Bearden, '65, Pat Vice, Kay Kirby, Shannon Mandle, Teri Wolf, all '67, Jody Darrah, and Susie Lyon, both '66. top row: Drew Renolyds, '67, Bobby Fisher, Mark Crump, both '65, Bob Lightner, '66, Guil Jones, '65, Mickey Sheaks, '65, Richard Welch, '67, Bud Webert, '65, Burk Thompson, '66, and Rob Billinger, '65. not pictured, Sue Huffman.

MEMORIES of the Hangar and of wonderful nights in a teen-age world are part of the "Echoing Voice of the East."

GENTLEMEN don't have to take off their hats at the Hangar because informal dress is acceptable there.

Hangar— Gathering Place for Dancing, Laughing, Gabbing

ACES consider themselves fortunate to have school sponsored, organized dances at the Hangar, East's teen-age recreation center, where they can gather after football and basketball games. Music for dancing and listening is provided by bands or records. Any student at East may attend the Hangar on presenting a school identification card and a twenty-five cent admission fee.

Hangar is planned and conducted by a student board and directed by John Bobula and Victor Forbes, teacher sponsors.

During the year the Hangar contributes to several charitable organizations. Admission fees at these times may be a small toy for a needy child or a can of food.

"IMAGINE A 6 FOOT TROPHY in the back of the room!" dream Paulette Lightener, '65, David Saumweber, '65, Sara Orr, '66, and Coach Joe Woddard as they plan for their winnings at the weekend's debate tournament.

The National Forensic League—Debaters Prepare, Present Persuading Briefs

Debaters at East are winning top honors as members of the National Forensic League. During debate tournaments with challenging schools, points are kept on each member's individual record. Debaters strive to earn one of the four degrees which members of NFL can achieve for their debating skills—merit, honor, distinction, and excellence. These degrees are awarded on the basis of the points earned during a debate season. Directed by Joe Woodard, members challenge each other during club meetings, striving constantly to improve the skill needed to win against other schools.

Members spend time gathering and organizing information before presenting it so as to sway the listener to their viewpoint. Debaters must combine their skills and recorded files of information in order to achieve success. During the second semester, members attend speech tournaments rather than debates. They also enter events such as oratory and poetry interpretation. Speaking in an organized manner and with a poised presentation is the goal of each participant.

PREPARING A DEFENSE to repudiate the first speaker's contention, Stu Barrier, '66, and Doug Isern, '65, find quotations to support their view of the debate topic.

Presenting his arguments, Doug Isern tries to sell his ideas to a listening class. He must include all his information within the time allowed but must not leave time unused.

Preparing their rebuttal to answer the opposing views, seniors David Saumweber and Jim Kitch, affirmative, discuss their opponents' inconsistencies and weak arguments which they wish to emphasize to the audience.

THE PEP CLUB CABINET IS: front row— Linda Pottenger, Cheryl Rice, Sandy Williams, president; Susie VanSlyke, Julie Waskiewicz, all '65; back row— JoAnn Ogle, Janice Renollet, both '67, Darlene Vice, Janet Richie, both '65, Vickie Illgner and Sue Gump, both '66.

INTENSE expression on the face of Marcia Spurrier, '66, shows anxiety experienced during a game as she wonders whether the team will make a first down.

WHAT do Janel Cation, Karen West, and Jeanne Herrick, all '65, find so interesting? Perhaps the Lettermen's club?

Pep Club— Enthusiasm Shows

Pride and Spirit In School

EAST'S Peppy Pilots, or "Blue Angels" as Mr. Moore, principal, calls them, provide a vital part of the school's enthusiasm and spirit. Traditional blue and white uniforms at all athletic events create an impressive image of the cheering force behind the teams.

Membership is open to any girl who owns a uniform and who has not more than three unexcused absences from any required game or meeting.

During the year the club, sponsored by five teachers—Mary Anne Hubbard, Yuvonne Slingerland, Sherri Leep, Jeanne Ponds, and Nola Zuercher—hangs banners in the halls, sponsors several dances, and runs a booth for the "Carnival For Cash."

HOMECOMING is a beautiful blue ceremony with 700 pep club girls on the football field forming a huge heart.

Echoes— Proportions, Pictures Pose Problems For Staff of 8

CREATING a yearbook filled with memories is the task of a dedicated eight member staff. In addition to meeting the seven deadlines on time, the staff also selects the candidates for Lord and Lady Echo, sells subscriptions to the yearbook, and handles the distribution of prom pictures.

Over 3,000 pictures including more color pictures, more candid shots, larger individual class pictures, and a summer supplement are features of the '65 Echoes. Factual copy and pictures are designed to express the theme, "The Echoing Voice of East." This 212 page yearbook is the largest produced by any Wichita high school, yet it has the smallest staff and costs the least. Meredith Cromer, advisor, approves all work done by the staff.

"LOOKS LIKE ONE of these pictures would fit that space!" thinks Jean, Kathy, Launie, Kathy, and Linda as they work on a layout.

Messenger— Headlines, Cutlines, Deadlines, and Bylines

KEEPING the student body well informed on all school news, The Messenger staff of 17 digs through files and hurries through the halls searching for stories and taking pictures. The paper, issued to the school every other week, has received the honored All-American Award from the National Scholastic Press Association for the past 11 years.

The staff under the teaching and direction of Meredith Cromer, advisor, sells subscriptions to The Messenger, gets advertising from local merchants, and exchanges papers with over 150 other high schools in the nation, in addition to publishing a six page paper. Such activities require extra time from the staff, but they find the work educational and rewarding.

Student Leaders—Preside

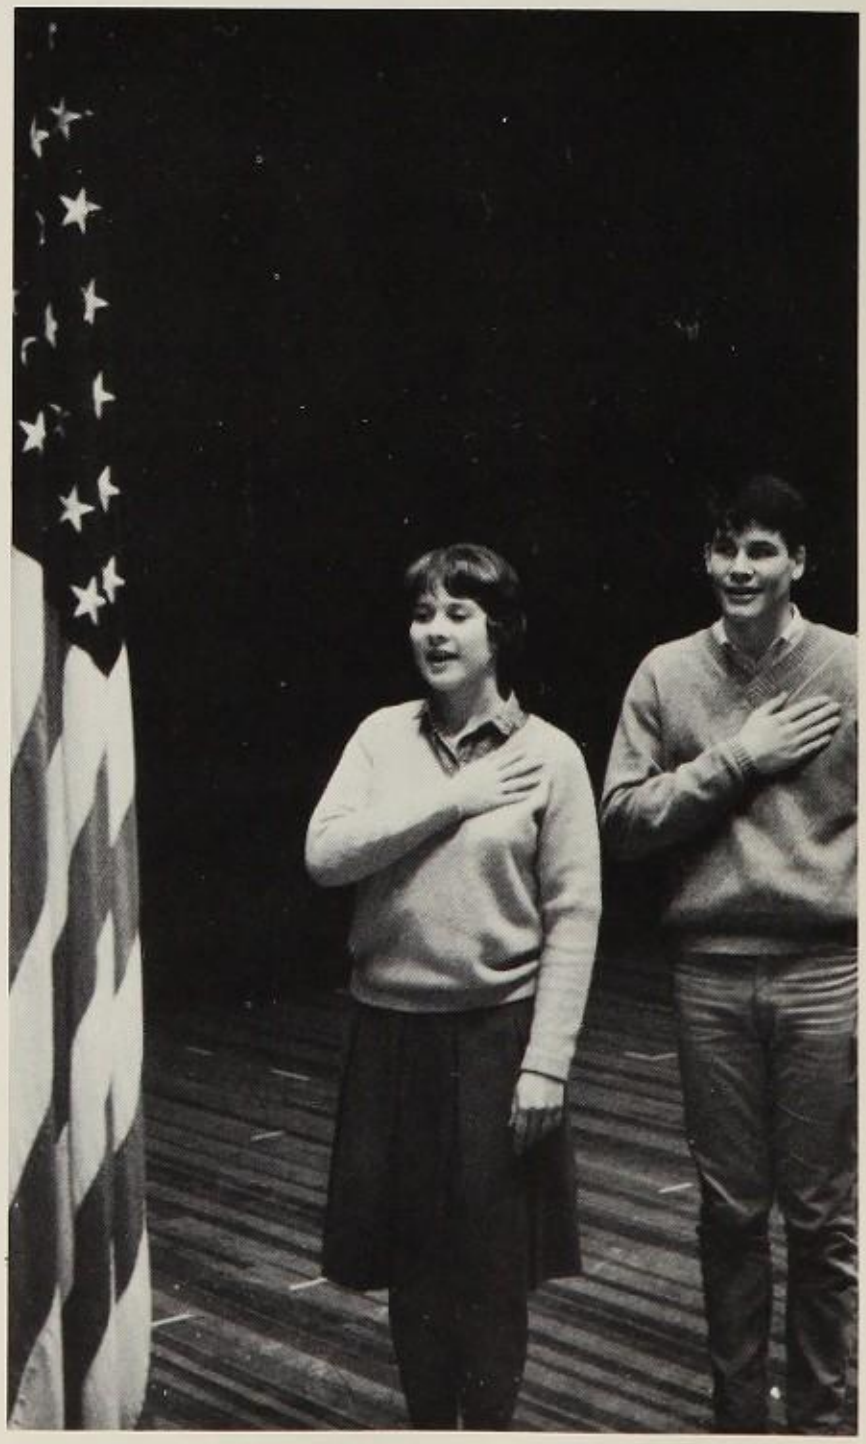
Over Student Body Activities

Representing the voice of East's students, class leaders preside over all activities of the student body during the year. Student directory sales, the tutor drive, and the "Carnival for Cash", are included in their projects. During the Christmas season they advertise the "Toys for Tots" drive, collect for "Operation Holiday", sponsor the Christmas card exchange among East and Southeast students, and select and decorate the Christmas tree for the hall.

Junior class officers help plan the junior-senior prom, choose class rings, and make arrangements for senior vespers and commencement.

Senior class officers aid juniors in planning the junior-senior prom, pick out graduation announcements, and arrange the senior prom and breakfast.

LEADING THE STUDENT BODY are David Benedict, '65, president; Marcia Spurrier, '66, treasurer; and Martha Dalton, '65, vice-president.



"I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE" begin Tom McKee and Martha Dalton, both '65, as Martha leads the assembly and fulfills one of her duties as a student body officer.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS ARE Vicki Ilnger, secretary; Stu Barrier, president; Suzie Lyon, girls' vice; and Buz Lukens, boys' vice.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS are Jane Wilcox, sergeant-at-arms; Linda Foxx, treasurer; Cathy Roach, secretary; Pat Hunter, girls' vice; Jamie Knorr, president; and Eldon Shilds, boys' vice.

Achievements— Boys' State, National Merit Semi-Finalists

Chosen for their leadership qualities, academic records, and extra-curricular activities, five boys represented East at the annual Boys State session held June 2-8, at the University of Kansas. The boys who studied governmental structure by serving in an office during this week are David Garcia, candidate for Boys' Nation; Rodelle Hunt, city attorney; Steve Stone, county assessor, Jim Price, senate; and Jim Goetz, county superintendent of public instruction.

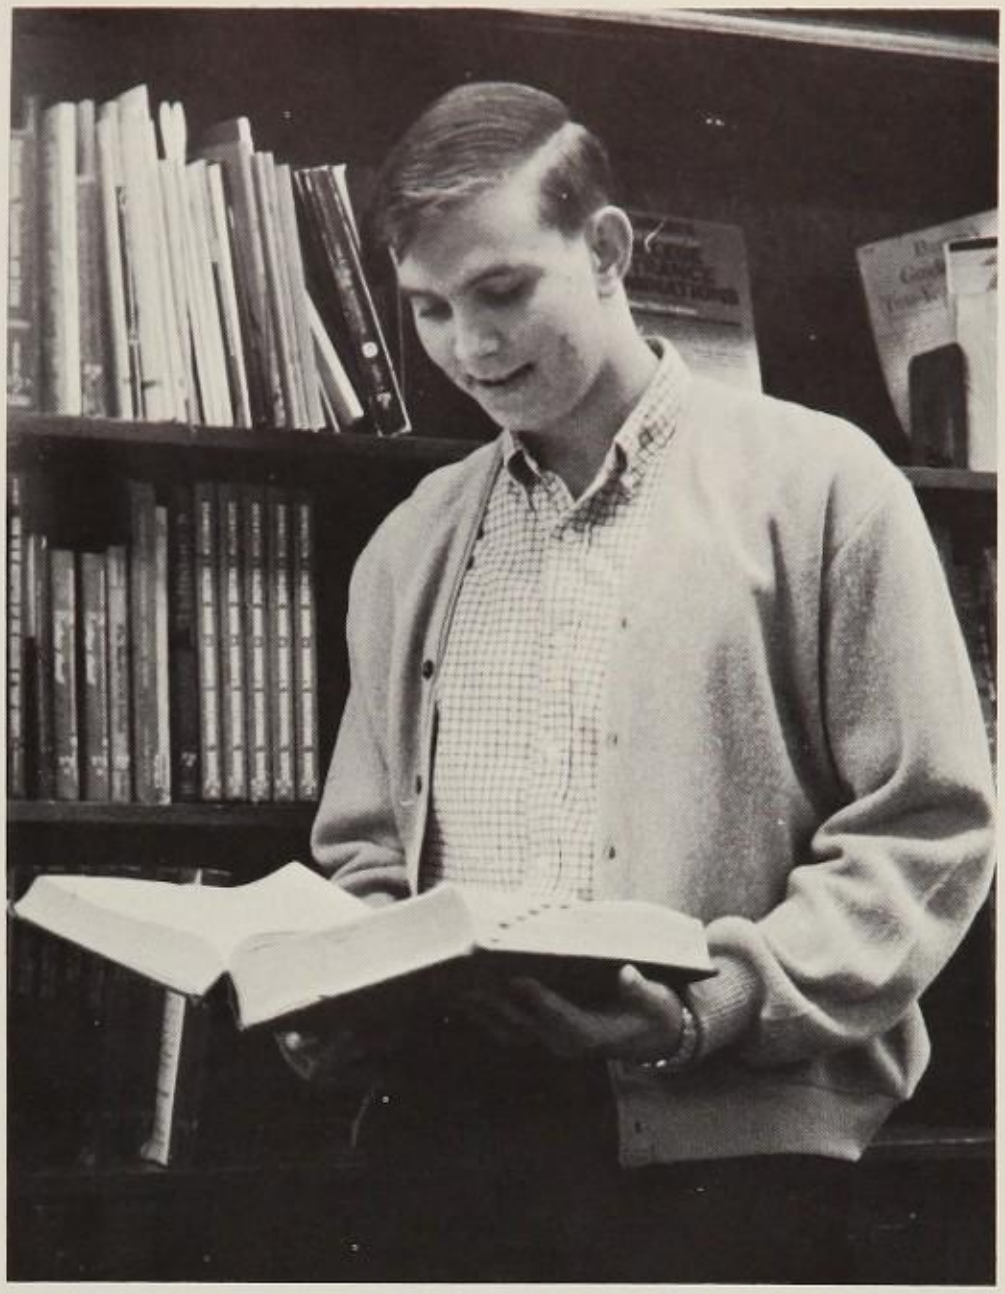
STUDY PLUS CONCENTRATION are key words to Mike Heathman's success as a finalist in the Summerfield Scholarship program for boys.



HOLDING THE HONOR of being a Summerfield scholarship finalist, Mark Michaels has proved his ability to apply the knowledge obtained at East.

THE ONLY ACE FINALIST in the Watkins scholarship program, Judy LeBlond was awarded an honor scholarship from Kansas University as a result of her scores on the scholarship test.

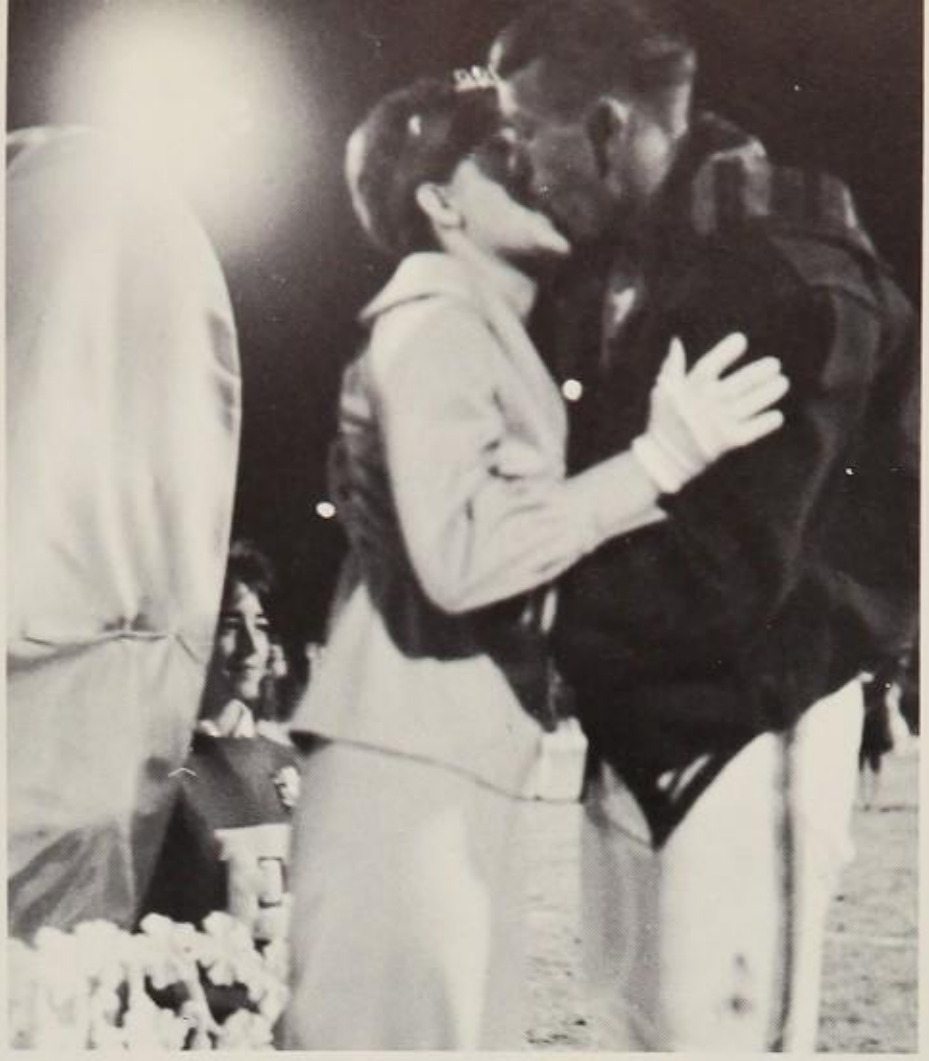
Homecoming— Couple Reigns Over Game, Dance

Around the football field, six candidates rode in convertibles escorted by their chauffeurs, each one being cheered by an anxious crowd. As the cars stopped, escorts, elected by the pep club, met the girls as they were introduced—Bobbie Blake, Sue Huffman, LuAnn Leisy, Suzie VanSlyke, Anita Williams, and Sandy Williams.

As the couples passed under the blue and white arch, a hush fell over the crowd as they waited for the speaker to announce that the homecoming queen and king for 1964-1965 are Bobbie Blake and Barry Herron. After the coronation, congratulations followed the couple as they left the field.

Ending the evening, Aces downed the Buffaloes by one point, 20-19.



THE TRADITIONAL KISS completes the coronation and begins Bobbie's reign.

RELEASED EMOTIONS emerge from candidates Sue Huffman, LuAnn Leisy, Susie Van Slyke, Anita Williams, and Sandy Williams as they turn to the announced queen Bobbie Blake.

An Evening In Azure Autumn

As formally dressed couples arrived at the Cotillion Ballroom November 24, they stepped into a night in "Azure Autumn." Misty blue and white decore completed the mood of the memory-filled prom. Dancing began to the tunes of Norman Lee's orchestra and the evening quickly passed.

Finally, the coronation hour approached. The senior candidates waited anxiously until the announcement was made—the king and queen of the 1964-65 junior-senior prom are Guil Jones and Julie Waskiewicz! The thrilled couple were crowned and junior attendants presented the flowers and seplicers.

As the last strains of the concluding song are played, the juniors and seniors regret the end of an exciting night!

Both with straight "A" averages since ninth grade, Martha Dalton and Barry Wood were chosen by the scholarship committee as outstanding girl and boy. Rated on their grade average, personalities, and extra-curricular activities, Martha and Barry were constantly high in each field.

Active in student government, Martha served as recording secretary of the House during her junior year and presided as vice president of the student body and as president of the senate during her senior year. She headed and organized a record-breaking carnival, and last summer was chosen to study in Germany.

Barry is also in student government as parlimentarian of the House. Active in sports, he was on the wrestling team during all three years at East.

This year's carnival earned a record breaking $3,600 for charity. Class competition was rough and every car wash, bake sale, chili supper, breakfast, and raffle helped to put the seniors over the top with a narrow margin over the juniors. Sophomore attendants Shannon Mandle and Jamie Knorr and junior attendants Holly Jones and Stu Barrier watched as Janice and David are crowned from the winning class.

Football— Grid Season

Ends With East At 7-2 Mark

East's grid season opened with a bright outlook as Wellington fell in easy defeat. Victory turned to disaster when the Aces met future city champions, West. Next the gridders traveled to Manhattan for the season's second defeat. After the Manhattan loss, the team gained six victories, ending the season with a 7-2 mark. The defending city champs, Kapaun, were rated the most outstanding city team until they met the Aces and fell in shocking silence. Southeast followed their path as East edged by with a one point lead. Heights, South, and Carroll proved no match for East. That ended the season with a second place rating in the city.

East was well represented on the "first city team" with halfback Tom Faust and right end Carl Williams gaining honors. Tom Faust, a junior, has rushed 672 yards for East. Carl Williams has caught 15 passes for 231 yards and 3 touchdowns this season. Williams also made the all-state team. Larry Brown made the second all-city team.

Cross Country— Undefeated Season, State Championship

With five Aces placing in the first 10 positions at the state cross country meet, East added another first place trophy to its credit. This is the first unblemished cross country season for East, and only the second time any team has taken state undefeated. The team, coached by J. D. Edmiston, who took over this year, and Monroe Fordham, assistant coach, set a new two mile record bettering the standing national record by 30 seconds. However, the squad was running on a course, uphill and more difficult, rather than on a track so the record does not count.

The undefeated cross country team got an additional boost with Jim Ryun's return from the Olympics. Jim ran with the squad in the regional and state meets, where he set a new two mile record. Ryun's championship time of 9:08.2 was teamed with Mike Petterson's 9:34; Doug Boyle's 9:38; Craig Kesterson's 9:53.3; and Bob Billinger's 9:57 to gain for East a low score of 30, or 44 points ahead of the second place team.

Climaxing the season's honors, "Track and Field News," a national athletic magazine, rated East's squad third in the nation.

CONTINUOUS AND RIGOROUS TRAINING is the key to East's victories, realize returning lettermen Dick Bearden, Steve Sell, Craig Kesterson, and Bob Mark, all '66.

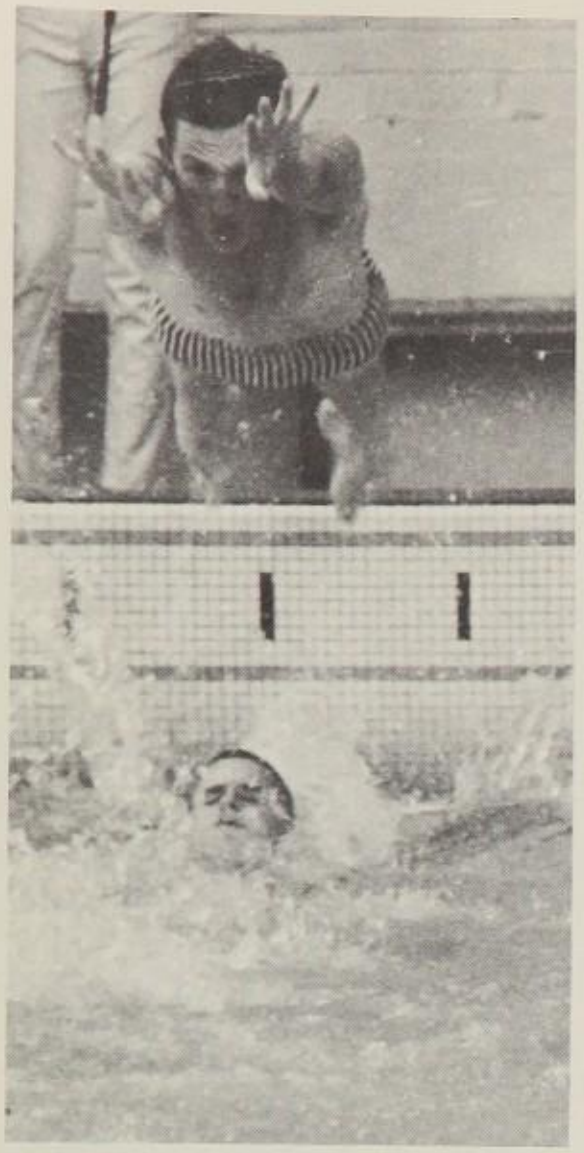
Swimming— East Finmen Regain Crown At State Swim Meet

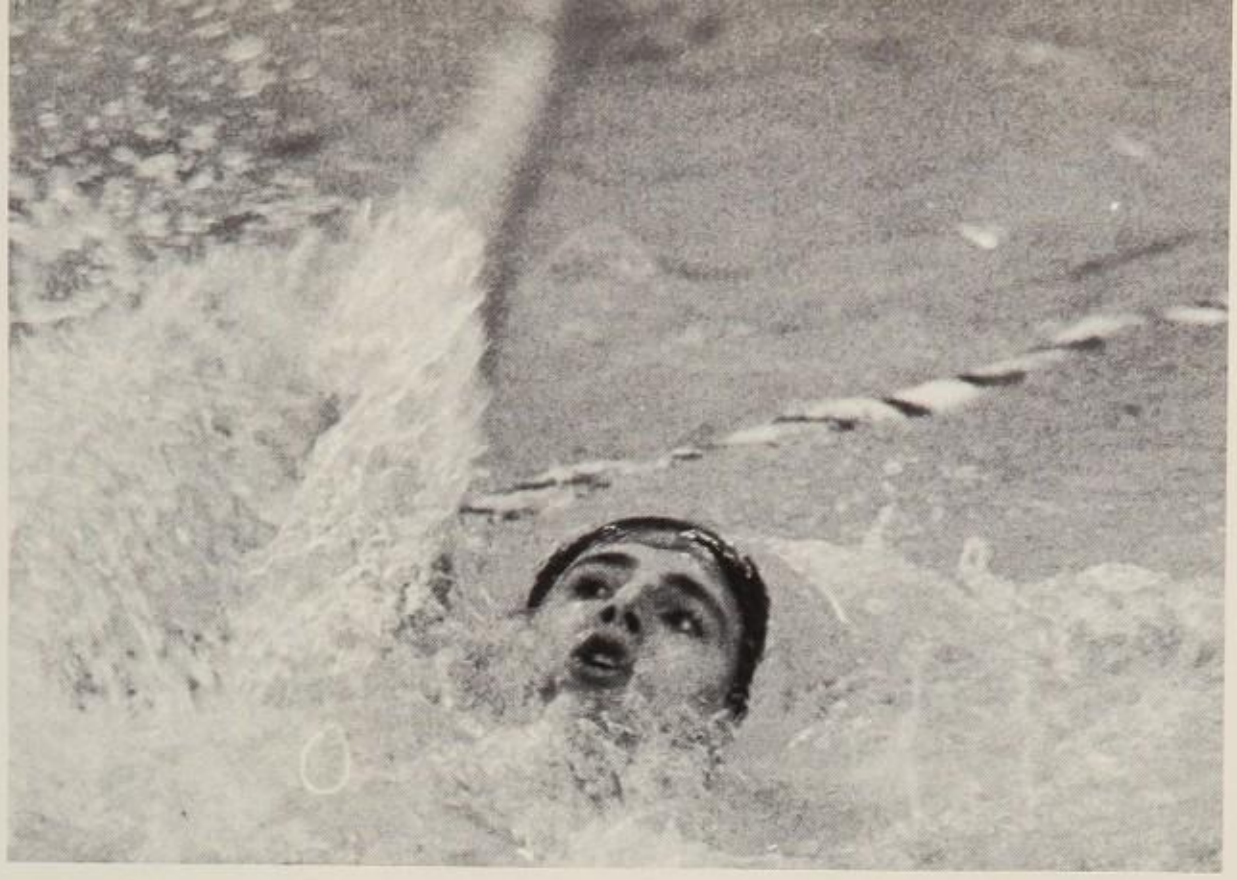
East's swimmers opened their season competing in the West Invitational, where the Aces grabbed 7 firsts, 4 seconds, 2 thirds, and 1 fourth. Moving on to Southeast, the finmen swept every first place. Next, the Aces hosted Topeka West and Kapaun in a triangular meet where they once again captured every first place. The swimmers then traveled to South and set three pool records. Returning to their own pool, East's swimmers were again victorious when they played host to the team from Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Later, the Aces traveled to Bartlesville and dunked the Wildcats in their own pool. During the last dual meet of the season with Wichita Heights, the Aces captured every first and second place. In the East Invitational meet East's swimmers took first place in eight of the 11 events.

Then the Aces moved on to state where they set two pool records and grabbed four of the 11 first places; no East swimmer finishing lower than third. This closed the undefeated season, regaining for East the state title lost last year after six previous record holding seasons.

A REVERSE ONE-HALF with tuck, as executed by winner Bob Wilson '65, is possible only after rigorous training.



A MIGHTY PLUNGE by Buz Lukens, '66, after Steve Trombold, '67, completes his part of the relay insures another record-breaking time by East's relay team.



A POWERFUL STROKE is executed by record-breaker Jamie Knorr, '67, who plays a vital role in East's record making season.

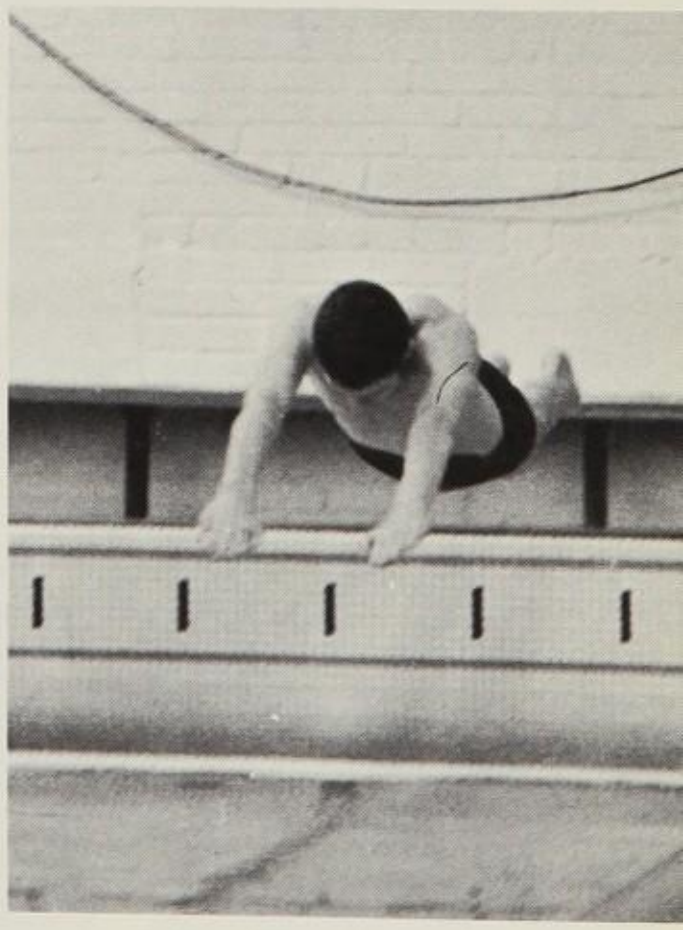
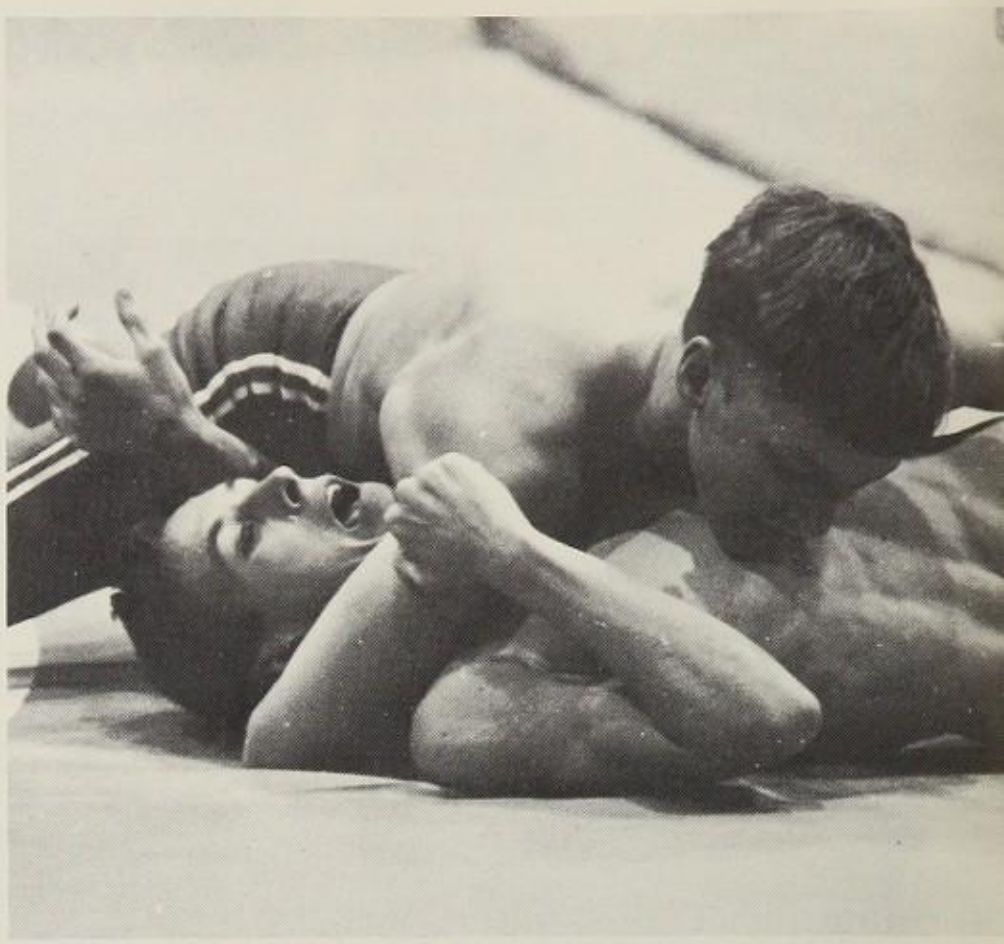
GET READY; GET SET; GO! and the race begins with John Elliot, '67, as East's competitor.



Wrestling–Matmen Compile

5-4 Record Finishing Season

Depressing defeat began the season as the Ace matmen lost to Kapaun. This setback, however, was offset by a 27-point victory over South. The Southeast Buffaloes followed the Colonels' pattern and fell to the Aces. The season's second defeat was a three point loss to Salina. Standing was regained when the Aces tackled the North Indians with success. Again the tide turned as Heights slipped past East with three points. Aces redeemed themselves by beating Topeka by 25 points. West posed the last defeat for the Aces, and the Columbus meet finished the season with East compiling a 5-4 record. Lettermen Larry Brown, Richard Longstaff, Allan Attkisson, and Peter Jones, all '65, lost but one match each during the entire season.



HOLDING HIS OPPONENT in a half nelson and crotch, East matman Alan Attkisson, '67, works for the pin.

REGAINING HIS BALANCE, Jim Hughes, '66, prepares to go into a "Giant."

Gymnastics— East Stuntmen Grab

East's Invitational began the gymnastics season with Aces taking second being defeated only by Lawrence, defending state champs. South, West, Heights, and North were halted by East's superior performances as the season boosted stuntmen to first position in the city. The second defeat suffered was again against the Lawrence Lions in their gym. South, the only Wichita team to topple the Aces, took first at the Southeast Invitational, knocking East down to second place. Later East regained its standing, defeating South and taking first in regionals.

Moving on to state, Aces again met the Lions who were again successful in defending their title. East moved up from last year's third place standing to take second. Bob Carroll, '65, was the only double state winner as he placed first in rings and side horse. Gordy Brown, '65, third in free exercise, and Les McEntire, '66, fourth on the rings, gave East additional earnings.

Basketball—Cagers Take Second In City, First In Regionals

Seven easy cage victories set East on its way to a second place title in the city league. The first clash with Southeast showed the determination of the Buffaloes as they broke the Aces' winning streak. East recovered and continued their previous pattern of wins with four victories. A one point loss to South upset East's first place standing in the city and moved the Aces to second, under Southeast. A chance for redemption was offered when East again met the Buffs, but as before, their determination could not be broken by the Aces.

Kapaun played host at the regionals where the Aces replayed South for the previous upset and won the first game. North offered a second battle with East again victorious, putting the Aces in first place.

Representing Wichita, East moved on to the state tournament and was successful against favored Coffeyville. Loses to Wyandotte, last year's champs, and Hayden, completed the season with East in fourth place in the state tournament.

Jackie,

There is something I must say before anything else and that is THANK YOU for your intentions on my birthday. I know you and Susie didn't think I knew about the surprise party, but I did - my mom slipped. Although it didn't come through I say thank you with all my heart! You are really sweet. I'm sorry we haven't been in a class together this for we haven't been able to talk together like last year in study hall, but are friendship now shows we are true friends. Maybe we can do more next year since we will both have sixth hour passes. I really think your sweet Jackie, in addition to being cute, nice, neat and fun!! However, I don't ever want to catch you spying again or hiding girls in the back of your convertible also. I want to see a lot of you this summer and if I don't I'll be mad. Always Rep Bell - He's a doll.

Love always to a real sweetie.

Ruth

P.S. I also don't ever want you to be president NO. 2 of any club again.

Returning for a third and final year as proud Aces, seniors accept the responsibility of carrying on East's traditions handed to them by previous graduates. Senior year is filled with accomplishment, tears, and hopes. Tears are for the past; for memories of the last game, the last Hangar, the last day in senior corner with departing friends. Accomplishment is for the present; for high school years being completed, requirements being fulfilled, honors being won. Hope is for the future: for adventurous days in college, a successful career, a life filled with attainment.

Senior week ends the year's activities with the prom and breakfast; and as the Alma Mater is sung for the last time in senior corner, and "Pomp and Circumstance" is once again heard at commencement, another class of Aces become graduates of East High.

Their experiences during these memory filled years will serve them throughout their lives. Once again the voice of East echoes in the world.

Juniors— Approaching A Second Year With Eagerness

Juniors begin to fill their second year with new activities and new goals; much of their time is spent preparing for future education. National Merit tests and research themes challenge their abilities. Selected juniors represent their school at Sunflower Girls' and Boys' State.

The Junior-Senior Prom excites new interest as students prepare for a wonderful evening. Standing in line for class rings, attending school events, and earning recognition as individuals, the juniors serve as a strong inner core for the student body.

As the year closes, juniors recall their experiences of the past two years and look forward to another year of learning. Rings are turned and East's juniors become East's seniors and accept the responsibility of leading the school.

Sophomores— A First Year Filled With Many Memories

When the new sophomores enter East, they enter a world different from anything they have known. At first this is a world of confusion, of searching for a classroom and for a familiar face in a mob. Soon, however, it is filled with exciting football games, class elections, and Hangar.

Sophomore corner is the place these 1,000 Aces meet each other, discuss their plans to win the "Carnival for Cash," and hang banners supporting the athletes.

Singing in the "Messia", acting before Aces in the school play, decorating for a pep club dance, serving on Hangar board, or representing their class in student government, the members of the sophomore class become active students of East. By the end of the year the class of '67 is a part of the spirit and pride of East and is ready to take its place as the junior class.

East mourns their loss but echoes their memories—

Paul Cummings
Carol Merrill
Diane Ralston

Miss Gratia Boyle taught at East for 35 years—The music she directed will ring in Aces' hearts; Her contribution to East will never die.

As a pebble tossed into a pond sends ripples to its outermost edges, so do the many students who pass through East's halls send an echoing voice out to all corners of the world. Each one learning, each one leaving . . . East's lessons will be used over and over in the eternity of existence.

Jackie,
Heart America just wasn't the same this year without you. But it's really great to see you're still around and going strong in the dorm. Keep up a dazzling social life and a lot more of your wonderful self. Good luck always, Jackie.
Love, Kim

Jacqueline,
Well, we gone to sort nyrs. now, some good memories, some bad. You're still a pretty sweet girl though, even though you make me mad as heck sometimes. Keep up the tennis and maybe you'll turn for the good, even though you bounce. Be good and have a good summer
BB

Jackie:
You're a real sweet cute girl - why don't we ever have classes together - were only got one more year to do it in! Good luck and stay "Jackie"

Jackie,
Hope you have a great summer. Thanks for your friendship this year. Best of luck in the future.
Love ya,
Mary Ann

Jackie -
I can honestly say that East will be in bad hands next year. Poor old Alma Mater - Here I leave it in scramble and you will leave it in ruins. But there will always be another class to fix it up. Now to more serious business. You're a riot, a little dumb, but one hell of a riot. I just hope you pass algebra and Pierpoint. Good luck (I can't spell) Have a lot of fun next year and don't drink too much, eat or anything else. Well good bye until we meet again. (Sounds like Roy Rogers and Duke Evans doesn't it.)

Lee Wilshire

Jackie, have good luck next year in school. Sorry I'm graduating from East. It won't be the same without you around. Have a real crucial year and always remember you're a personality. Always keep smiling and don't ever change. Good luck for next year at East. Wish you the best of luck in the future years to come.

P S Keep hold of that darling

Jake,
you are one the craziest gals that I know. We have had a lot of fun this year, and I am sure that we will continue to have a good time. Stay with it old timer. Say hello to Jim for me (the WAT is too). I am running out of room so I better close. I will see you this summer.

Bob

Jackie,
We have only known each other a year, but I think it has been a great year. We have had a lot of fun at Bob's party where you met Bill, which in turn starts something good.

Good Luck
Fred

Jackie
We've had so much fun together
I think
I just love to be with ya. Next year
we'll be seniors believe it. You'll always be a good friend. Love Jan Thomas

Jackie,
You're a real
sweet, nice, quiet, wonderful girl. And that's all a bunch of
—— I've really enjoyed
knowing you - though I hope you have a lot of fun through the summer,
Love Always
Jerry

Jackie, what can I say? We've had so much fun together and now at Seltzer, Minneha and now at coast, you're just one of the sweetest people I know. I hope we get together this summer and have a little fun. You know Bill stayed so ya. He kept me and Bill are so far apart now a days but there are so many girls in the future and I'm sure we'll get together for a long time. Jackie, there is only one thing wrong with you, you couple - well since you're always waiting on me. Take everything I say seriously. Don't do that! I better go. Good luck in See. You're really sweet, stay may God Bless you. love ya, the way you are.
Tina Buckley

Jackie, All right now there
Hey - you are a real sweet gal and lots of fun - Good luck in all you do
Sincerely
Patty

Jackie,
I think you are one of the sweetest and cutest girls I have ever met, especially considering your religious obliviation, which I won't mention now. We have really had a riot in Algebra this year considering how screwed up we have been most of the year. I hope that you will have only the best of luck in the years to come and I hope I will see you somewhere again after I leave these "hallowed halls."

Love ya,
Kenny

PS I was only kiddin about your religion - OK?

Jackie,
This year has meant alot to me for many reasons, but one of the biggest reasons is because I've gotten to make some great friends like you. I'm sorry
I'm not smarter in algebra so I could help you more, but I'll always be willing to help you in any way I can. Hope you have a fun summer. Let me say that I think Bills a pretty lucky guy. Your friend - Buzz

Jackie,
Well, another year has come and gone so soon. Hope you have a wonderful Senior Year. I'm glad that you are among those people because I like you enjoyed your freinds hip. I hope that we will continue to be of friends. Good luck in anything
do.

Love,
Pam Hubbard

Jackie,
I've really enjoyed
you as a friend
this year. I'm sorry that I haven't had more time to spend with you around school
but I'm not a Senior and so I don't have as much freedom as you do, you'll find out next year. It's gonna be confusing!
Keep smiling
and Bill
and I'll see you
around school
Love ya,
Kenny

Jackie,
Well this year has been interesting
Coaches, but you'll like it
Keep smiling
and Bill
and I'll see you
around school
Love ya,
Kenny

Jackie,
Well this year has been interesting
Coaches, but you'll

Jackie,
I don't really have anything to say, but I'd been a lot of fun in Davis's class because that's the only place I see you. You're the grade you want by trying a little louder. Trip Dunne.

Jackie,
You really a sweetie and I'm glad I got to know you better this year. I hope we can be good friends in the years to come. You've got a cute personality and don't let those boys in study hall put you down.
Best luck in the future,
Love

This year really started off with a bang. We had our troubles and fun. Somehow, I think it was we got seperated. Anyway, hope next year is more like the first of this year.
Best of all, Jackie.

jackie,

↓ The Hell it is.

I agree!

First I'll say (though you already know) I can't express my true feelings by writing, but attempt a will. I could say what a year! This so fast; yet where have they gone? Our first year we spent looking the place over, making new friends, looking at the boys going to dances (without our dad's driving! HA) and learning the world isn't all a bowl full of cherries! Now we've come to the end of our second year, the ending of a year as a neat Junior! HA, HA! We have come close to never seeing one another again, the joy of a class ring, youth groups (yes Brad, Murray, Dick, Randy, John etc) Junior Assembly, Junior twenty century cars a locker (wow), trips to Kansas City, spying on people, triple date and Elise. These are just a few of the many things that have filled our lives. We both have changed in the four years since we've been friends. Some for the good some for the bad. You could never make such a bad mistake that it would turn me from you. You will darling, loads of laughs although you do give at times the tears pretty well) and my best friend. To sum up our friendship I have taken from Kahil Gibrans Book, "The Prophet."

"For without words, in friendship all thoughts, all desires, all expectations are born and shared, with joy that is unacclaimed.

When you part from your friend, you grieve not; for that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain." Love, Susie

The echoing voice of East is in our halls today, and in the world tomorrow.

Jackie -
Just think - we haven't flunked and we're almost Seniors! Just hope we can make it next year. Have fun this summer and be good.

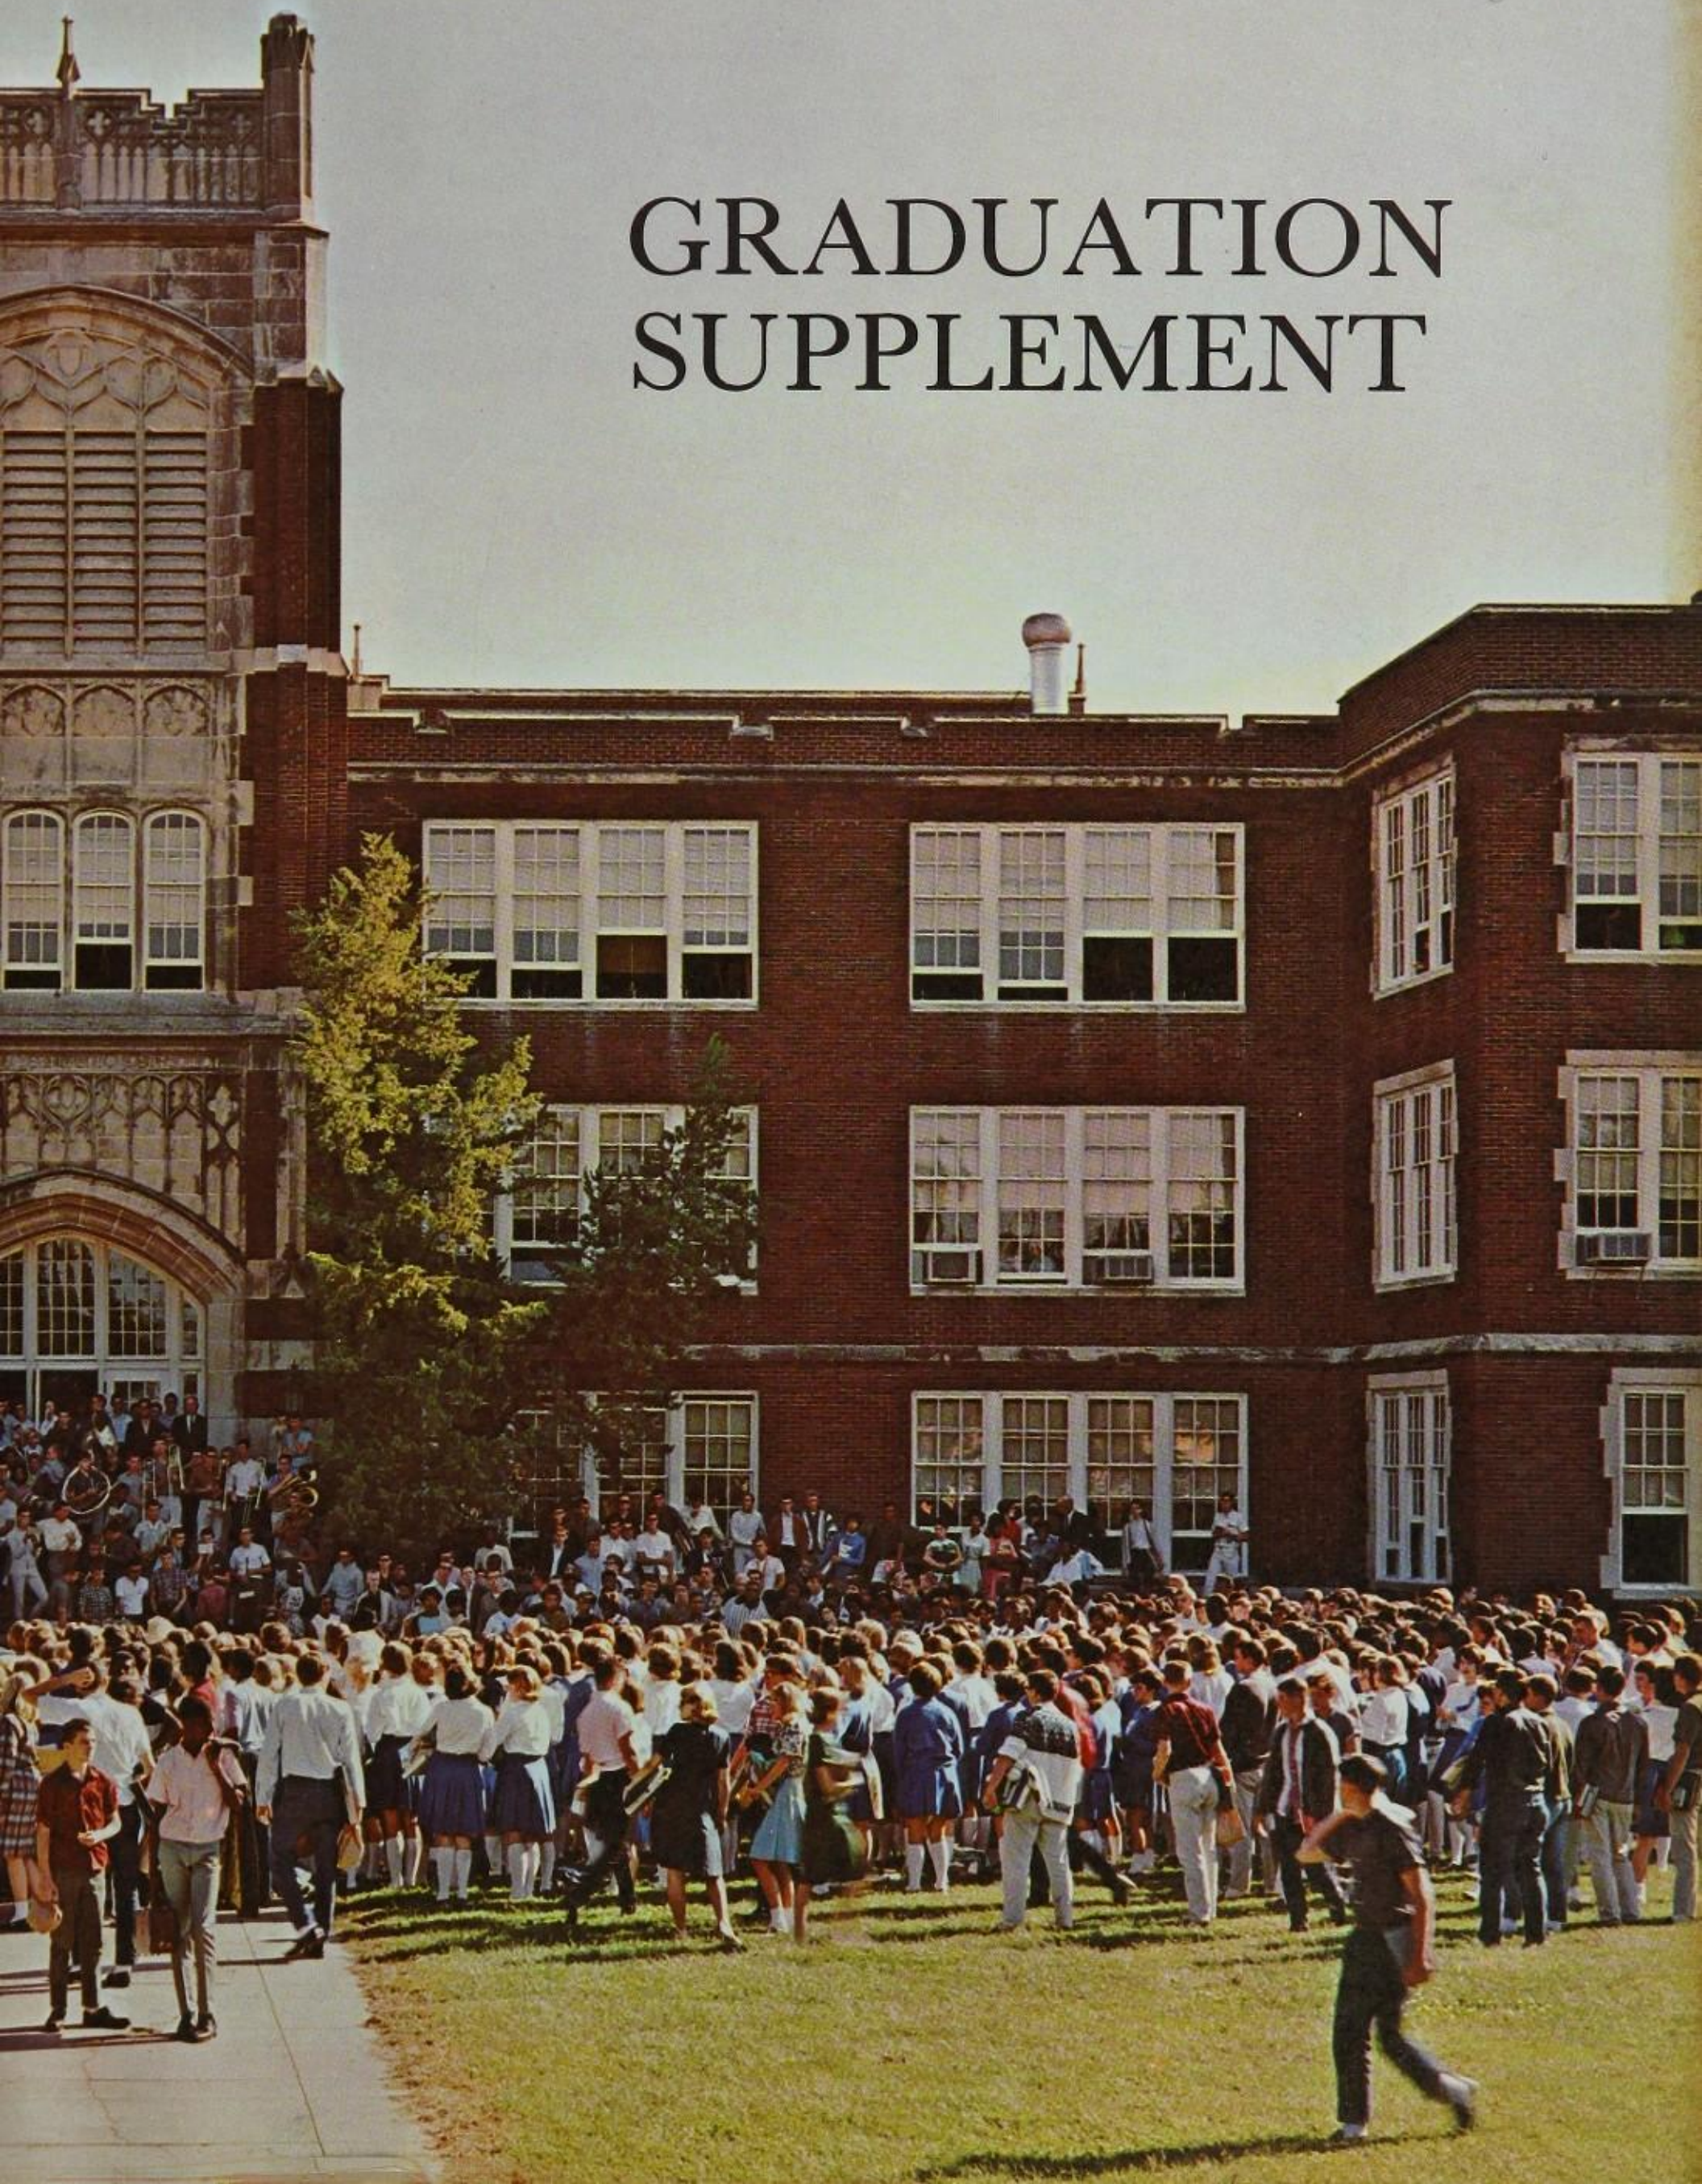
GRADUATION SUPPLEMENT



Tennis—East Netmen

Place 5th In City League

Seven lettermen, led by Coach Norris Barker, moved the Aces to a fifth place standing in the city league with a 2-4 record for the season. East's first match was with South and brought a victory for the netmen. The Winfield Invitational offered a fifth place with eight teams competing. Heights fell to East for the Aces' second victory in the last meet before the regional and state matches. Sophomore Bruce Price was then undefeated in dual matches in the City League. Heading the team, Bruce took second in singles at the regional matches and went on to state to be eliminated in the first round. Five returning lettermen will help to boost the future Ace team.

Golf— 4 Man Team Leads
Linkmen to First At State

Winning its first two meets and finishing second in the third competition, East boasted a first place standing in the city league. However, the position was lost to Southeast during the all-city showdown with the score standing 45½-45.

Competition was extended outside city play at the Salina Invitational where the four man team of Dakin Cramer, Jack Stevens, Kenny Miller, and Jerry Denver captured the team title. Once again Southeast edged East out of a winning spot in Regional play where Charles Peffer tied with Buffs for medalist standing with a 75. However, Ace linkmen showed their power when they went on to the state tourney to capture the title for Wichia High School East.

Baseball— Ace Diamondmen Compile 8 Wins, 7 Losses

Six returning lettermen, coached by Marc Webb, moved to a fourth place tie in league play and a second rank in regional play. East first took the field against Wichita Heights for an encouraging 10-2 victory against the Falcons. After four losses and one win, the diamondmen gave Kapaun a 5-1 loss, a team Coach Webb had classified as one of East's toughest competitors. Bishop Carroll, Kansas City Ward, Kansas City DeLasalle, Eureka, and Eldorado bit the dust as the Aces rounded the plates.

The 20 member team, led by returning lettermen Terry Threadgill, Barry Herron, Ron Simmons, Bob Cory, Kenneth Luallen, and Euel Reed, boasted an overall record of eight wins, seven losses.

Track— Ryun, Petterson, McGuire, Johnson Set Records

East's undefeated cindermen led by Coach J. D. Edmiston, completed a season full of wins from city, regional, and state competition. The Aces also downed Wyandotte by 1 point to take the state indoor meet. Foremost among the record setters was Olympian Jim Ryun. Ryun established a national mark of 4:04.4 in the mile run at the East Invitational, lowered his record to 4:02 at Hutchinson, and finally dipped under the 4 minute barrier with a 3:58.3 for the first sub-4 minute mile in high school competition. Mike Petterson rated as one of the nation's fastest high school milers running second behind Ryun with a peak mark of 4:10.8. Pole vaulter Bill McGuire, also making a habit of smashing records, made his top effort of 14 feet 7 ⅝ inches at the state meet. The vault set the high mark in Kansas and ranks McGuire within the top 10 prep vaulters in the US. Junior J. W. Johnson set a state all time best with a time of 14.3 in the high hurdles in the K.U. relays. His 9.8 in the 100 yard dash set the AA record at state where he also sped to a 18.7 clocking in the high hurdles. Johnson also anchored the state winning and record tying 880 yard relay team of Mike Vesey, Dwight Hart, and Tom Faust. The 4-man team also set a state all time best in the 440 yard relay. East's 2 mile relay set a national record when Doug Boyle, Bob Mark, Petterson, and Ryun teamed up for a 7:42.9 at KU.

SMASHING THE HIGH HURDLES RECORD at the KU relays, J. W. Johnson, '66, has set six records in six events.

RATED AS TWO OF THE FASTEST high school milers in the US, seniors Jim Ryun and Mike Peterson begin their sprints to win first and second places at the state meet. →

Queen Sandy

"Sadie Hawkins"

A CROWN OF FLOWERS is placed on the head of Queen Sandy by her escort Bob Fisher and her reign begins over the Pep Club sponsored "Sadie Hawkins" dance.

EXPECTATION ENVELOPES Sandy Williams and escort Bob Fisher as they enter the boy's gym to await the announcement of the Pep Club's choice for queen.

"Sadie Hawkins"— Girls

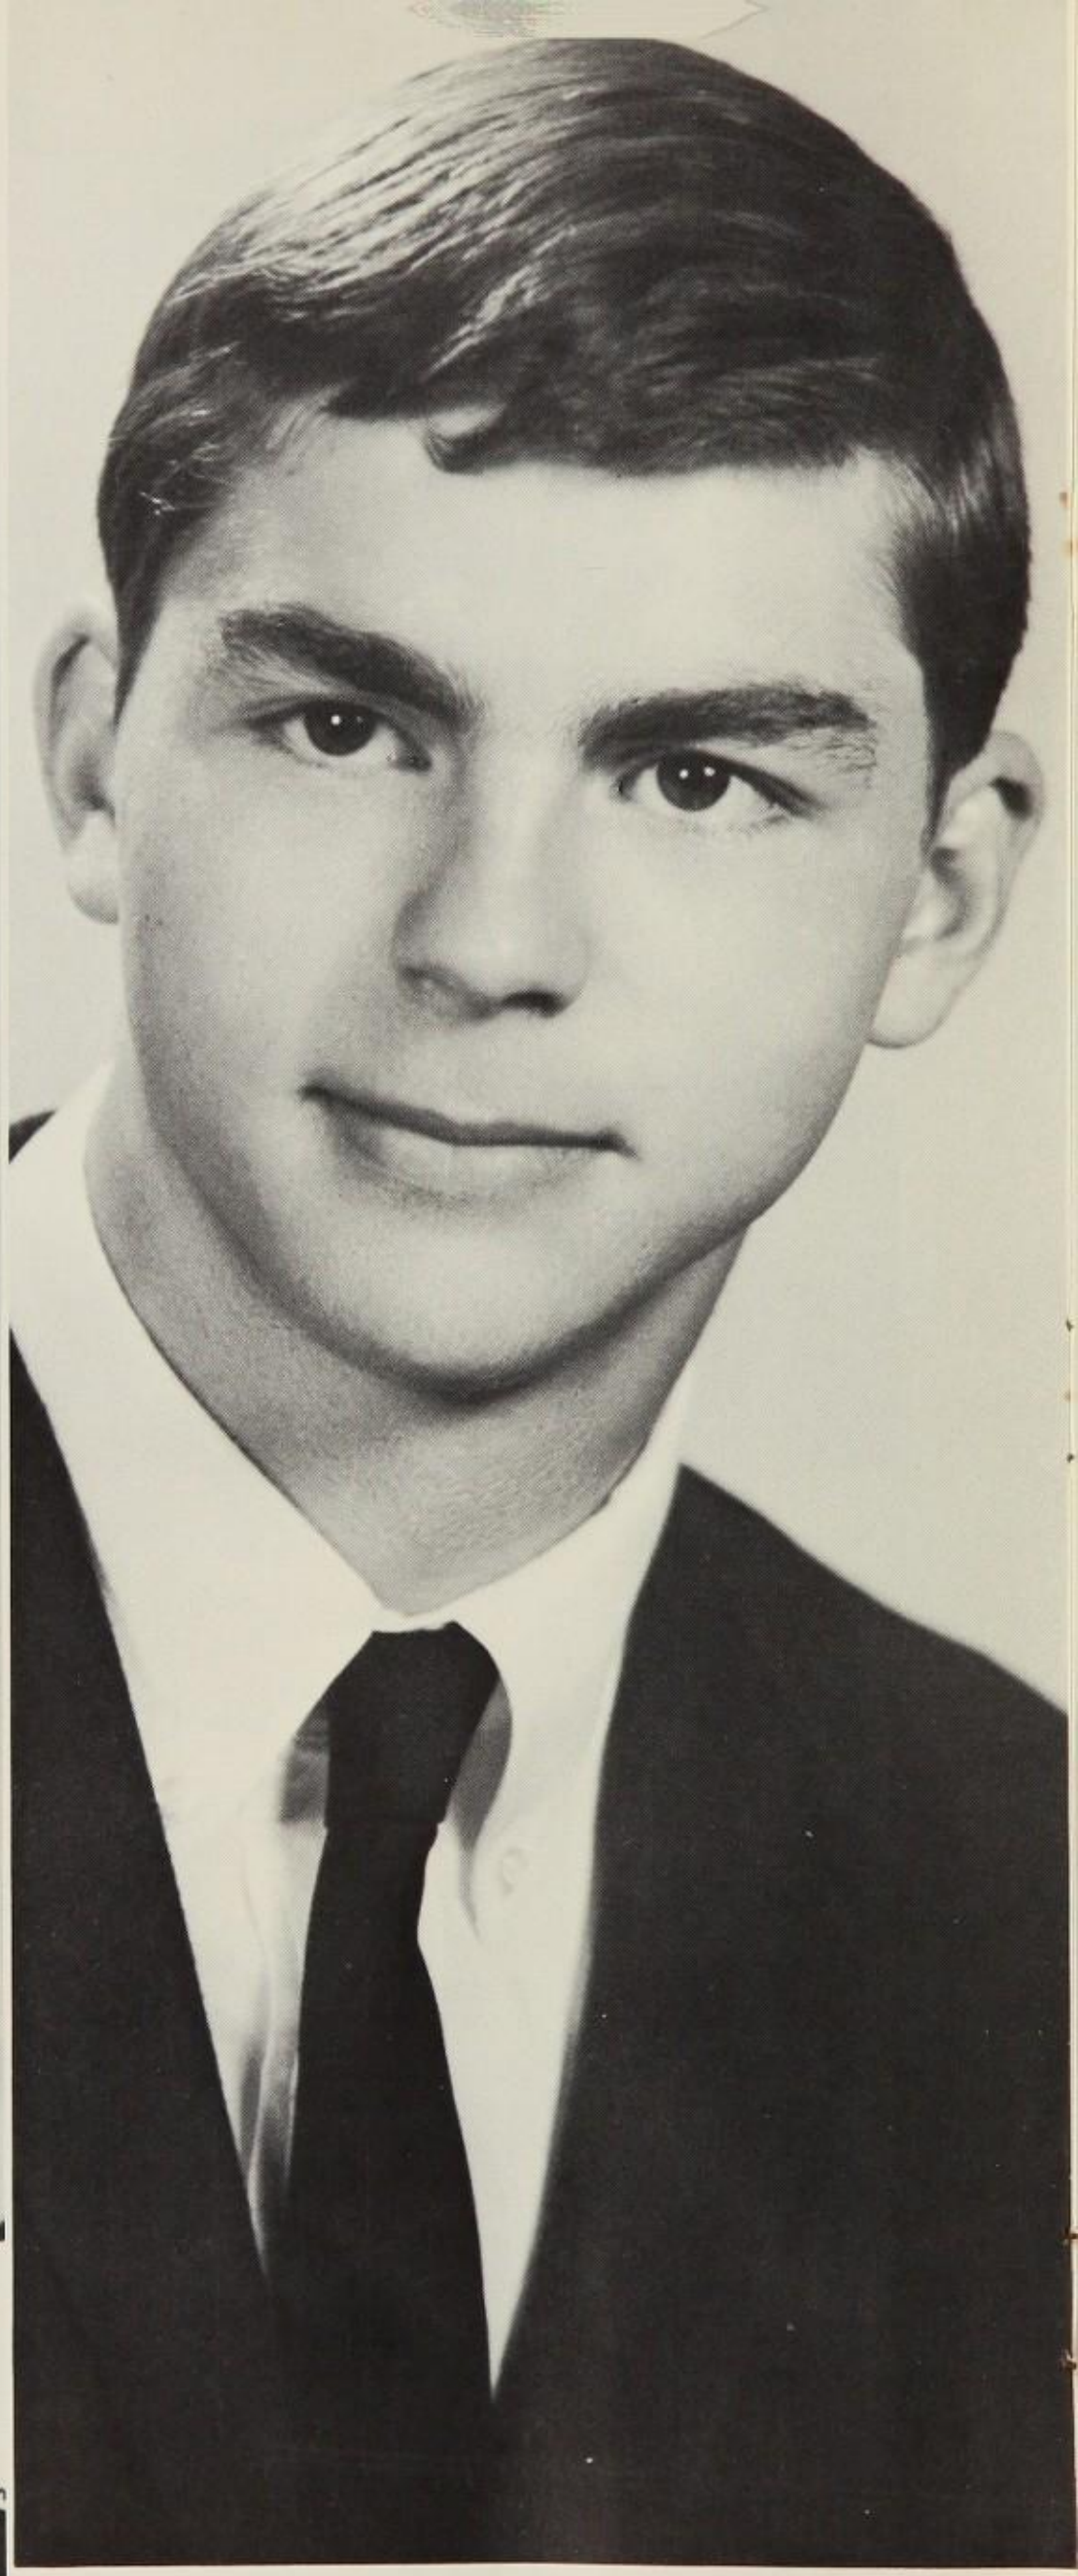
Elect Sandy Williams to Reign

As girls who took advantage of the opportunity to ask a boy to the Sadie Hawkin's Dance entered the East High Boys' Gym the evening of April 10, they were presented with either a pink, yellow, or blue daisy. Sponsored by the pep club, the dance provided music by the "Breakers" for the casually dressed couples.

A "Marry'n Sam" mock marriage booth along with tables decorated with red and white checkered table cloths and tin can flower holders added to the atmosphere of the dance.

Near the end, senior candidates Sandy Williams, Sue Huffman, Darlene Vice, Anita Williams, and Luann Leisy awaited the announcement of the queen chosen by the pep club— Sandy Williams. Escort Bob Fisher then crowned the queen with a ring of gaily colored flowers.

Queen Gretchen



King Rex

Senior Prom—Gretchen, Rex Reign as Sr. Royalty

Torrents of rain did not dampen the paradise created in the Cotillion Tuesday evening, May 25. An "Isle of Dreams" evolved from palm trees and fish nets marking the theme of the 1965 Senior Prom.

Senior couples danced from 8 o'clock to the strains of Chuck Dooling until time for the coronation of the queen and king at 11 p.m. Candidates Sue Huffman and Larry Brown, Gretchen Siebert and Mark Crump, Darlene Vice and Rex Curfman, and Anita Williams and Charles Jones awaited the announcement—Gretchen and Rex. The royal couple were crowned and their reign began over the enchanting evening which was coming to a close too quickly. It was the seniors' last prom at East High.

FOLLOWING THE CROWNING, Rex bestows the royal kiss to Gretchen.

ATTENDANTS to the newly announced King, Rex Curfman; and Queen, Gretchen Siebert, were Charles Jones, Anita Williams, Mark Crump, Sue Huffman, Larry Brown, and Darlene Vice.

"I WANT to save you, Antigone," pleads Creon, Ken Norris, '66.

Jo Hutchins reacts to her sister's pleas, "Antigone, don't you want to go on living?"

"TRAGEDY IS CLEAN, it is firm, it is flawless," explains Narrator Elise Rudin, '66, to the audience.

"Antigone"—13 Aces Dramatize Greek Tragedy

Tragedy and sorrow combined to make the Drama Department's April 26-27, presentation of "Antigone" a realistic ancient Greek legend styled to fit modern times.

Two sons of Oedipus, who was the late King of an ancient Greek city, Thebes, were killed in a civil war. Creon, who became Regent, ordered that the brother who provoked the war was not to be buried. Antigone, believing in a sacred law of burial, covered her brother's body with earth. Creon, keeping his order, had Antigone buried alive. This act not only resulted in the death of his son, who was in love with Antigone, and the death of Creon's wife but also led eventually to his own ruin.

Featured roles of the 13 member cast were played by Jo Hutchens, '66, as Antigone; Ken Norris, '66, as Creon; Scott Kailer, '65, as Haymen; and Elise Rudin, '66, as Narrator.

TOASTMASTER Jim Ryun, '65, introduces the speakers at the Senior Breakfast held in the Broadview Hotel.

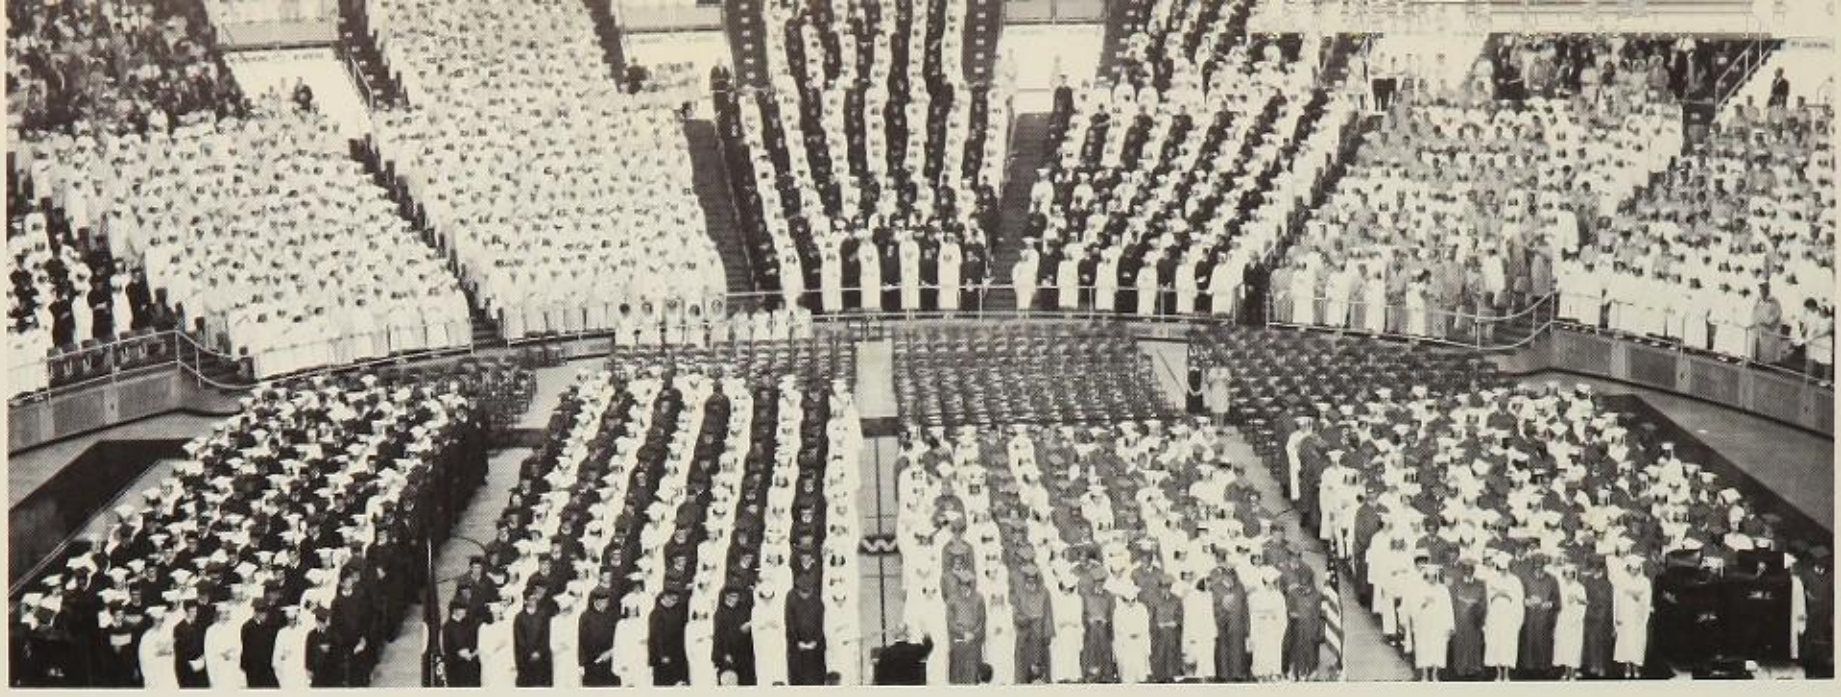
Senior Activities— Assembly, Breakfasts, Senior Farewells

"YOU MUST CARRY ON without us next year," consoles Robby Walters, '65, to some junior friends at the senior-junior girls breakfast.

Senior week was full of excitement and tears as the class of '65 prepared to end the pattern of high school life and to prepare for a new one. As friends realized these were their last days before they went their own separate ways, they made the most of their week.

Recognition assembly, "Climb Every Mountain," was full of senior accomplishments from the class of '65. Junior girls were welcomed to the role of leading East in 1966 by their senior friends during the annual junior-senior girls breakfast.

The last day, May 27, arrived all too soon after a week of gaiety. Girls dressed in white and boys in suits ate their breakfast at the Broadview Hotel knowing the end was soon to come. Toastmaster Jim Ryun headed the occasion introducing Mr. Moore's farewell and President David Garcia's thanks to his class. Then as the day ended, seniors congregated at senior corner while the senior yell rang throughout the school. Juniors became seniors with a turn of their rings and the class of '65 stood quietly in their corner knowing there was a goal set for them and there was much more to attain.



Vespers, Graduation—

Voices of East Will Echo

969 seniors worked three years to learn; they learned from books and from people about facts and about people. Those invaluable lessons are stored in their minds as they live.

969 seniors had the right to wear a cap and gown. They had the right to listen reverently during the all-school vesper service and know they would soon be "Facing the Unknown" about which Dr. William F. Keesecker told them. They had the right to walk down each step to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" as the commencement exercises began. They had the right to take their diplomas and proudly shake Sid Moore's hand.

When 969 seniors sang the alma mater May 30, they knew that this was but a beginning and that their three years at Wichita High School East would echo in their lives forever.
